5 HI-WAY

Foreword

"It was in making education not only common to all, but in a sense compulsory on all, that the destiny of the free republics of America was practically settled."

—James Russell Lowell

WE have produced the 1945 Hi-Way to show you, who are the future of America, what we did in Teaneck High School in 1944-1945.

Whether you will use this yearbook as a reference, to find a forgotten name, or to prove to a doubter that a person of renown was in your graduating class—or as a medium between youth and maturity—or for purposes of reminiscing—or to show others your school, your great school as it was in your year—you will swell with pride when in retrospect you see your contribution to democratic living, and the work you did to preserve and further our American heritage.

This is your book, a record of your year in Teaneck High. Enjoy it.

Contents

In the Fall:

We came to school, met the administration, greeted the faculty, found our homerooms, went to classes, and played football and soccer.

Winter came and . . .

We joined clubs, played basketball, and went to the Senior Prom.

At last spring!

We saw the annual play, played baseball, watched track meets . . . and graduated!

In the summer!

We spent all our money buying our advertisers' products.

Dedication

IN APPRECIATION OF ALL YOU HAVE DONE FOR US, AND IN GRATEFUL
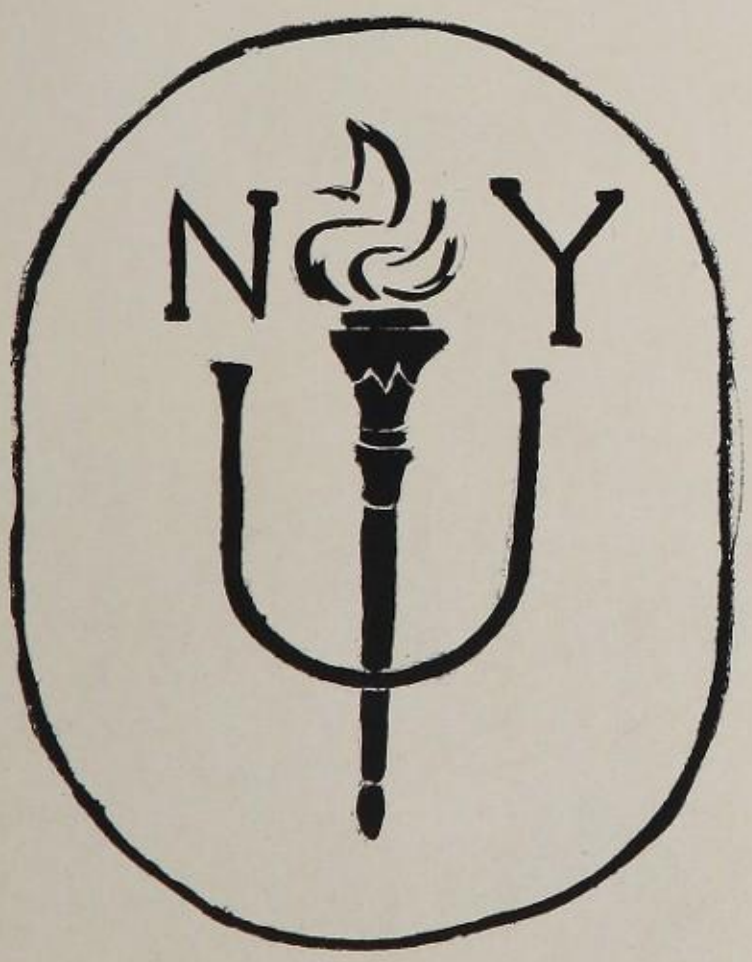
RECOGNITION OF YOUR FRIENDSHIP,
WE, THE CLASS OF 1945, DEDICATE
OUR YEAR BOOK TO YOU,
DR. MOFFATT.



THE first day of school . . . weiner roasts . . . hay rides . . . the nostalgic odor of burning leaves . . . football games on Saturdays . . . Halloween . . . kids dressed up, begging from door to door . . . Thanksgiving . . . turkey with cranberry sauce . . . mince pie . . . pumpkin pie . . . a football game with Hackensack . . . birds packing up and flying south . . . the first light snow . . . this is Autumn.

It all began in Autumn . . .

The Hi-Way

1945

Teaneck High School

Teaneck, New Jersey

Although lack of space prevents us from printing your names and pictures, I sincerely wish to thank all who helped in the production of this year book.

I give my special thanks to Miss Haffner, our advisor and guardian angel, who worked so hard with us; to Mrs. Geary, our art advisor, for her help and time; to Miss Curran, who worked untiringly on the literary end of the book; to Mr. Burdge, our banker and bookkeeper; to Miss Tepper, for her help and advise; to Miss Widman of Thomas Studio; and to Mr. Ball of the New City Printing Company.

Thank you!

Sincerely,

Edwinia Tillinghast

Editor-in-Chief

P.S. I would also like to express my thanks to Mrs. M. Pennimore and Dick Court for their photography work and to Robert Forscutt and the members of the art staff for the cartoons and drawings enhancing these pages.

The Junior Class Cabinet

The success of this year's Junior Class Cabinet has been largely due to the cooperation and unity of its members. Under the guidance of the three faculty advisers, Miss Doris Ruehe, Miss Isabel Meyers, and Mr. Westervelt Romaine, the cabinet was able to achieve many of the high standards it set out to accomplish, the Junior Prom being the highspot on the calendar of activities.

The President of the Junior Class is Donald Dinnsen, Vice-President, Joan Stuart, Secretary, Jean D. Harris, and Treasurer, Robert Ferguson.

The Senior Cabinet

The Senior Cabinet is the governing body of the Senior Class, deciding its principles, aims, and activities. This year, with Bill Eads a capable leader, and with the guidance of Mrs. Reva Vanderbilt, Miss Anne Curran, and Dr. Maurice Moffatt, the cabinet has carried out successfully its plans for the Senior Prom, the class gift, and graduation.

The Vice-President is Fabio Racioppi, the Secretary is Maurie Volk and the Treasurer is Barbara Wright.

OPEN LETTER TO THE FACULTY

DURING the three years we have been in Teaneck High (doubtless you, as well as we, have often wished the time were shorter), your undying patience, stimulating guidance, the high hopes, ideals and aspirations which you have aroused in us, have been an inspiration.

But these are only part of things that you have done for us. There has always existed between you and ourselves a certain intangible closeness, sort of a scotch and soda relationship, which has given us self-assurance and confidence, to say nothing of the respect which we hold for you.

Whatever we may say about the joy of leaving, deep down it's not so much fun growing up; graduation has its sad aspects. We hate to leave you!

Thank you for all you have done for us,

THE CLASS OF 1945.

Playcrafters

TALENT—unexpected, novel, unique—appears from all the hidden corners of the building, massing together under one common bond—The Playcrafters. Under the tireless guidance of Miss Helen Smith assisted by Mr. Robert Andrews and Miss Woods these unpolished artists gain self-assurance, poise, and the sort of finishing touches that highlight their original abilities. They turn out at least one full size play annually and often two with all the color and atmosphere of the true theatre. This major activity has become as much a part of school tradition as the Thanksgiving Game with Hackensack; it is anticipated by the student body at large with the same amount of interest and enthusiasm. This year there were two full-length plays.

These big productions and occasional short plays provide varied opportunities for employment of talent other than acting, such as the art of make-up, stage direction, publicity, and stage management. Many students find valuable experience in applying their skills to actual work, not to mention the fun included with the real labor. Laymen hear with envy the hilarious tales of backstage happenings (and mishappenings) in addition to anecdotes of those post-play parties some member of the cast always seems to give. Ordinary business meetings have the same air of enjoyment, brightened with such activities as small plays, radio plays, and just plain gags as often as not.

This year's officers were: Wanda Nuhn, President, Doris Maloney, Vice President, and Joan Levine, Secretary-Treasurer. The members of the group, totaling more than sixty, and the sponsors, join ranks to make the Playcrafters a club of which the school may well be proud. Their individuality is truly outstanding.

STAGE CREW

Sitting: Arthur Hendrickson, Gerald Conoscenti, John Upham, Donald Bolles.

Standing: Ronnie Allen, Herbert Panzenhagen, Bill Franz.

Stage Door

NOVEMBER 17 and another triumph chalked up for the Playcrafters! Stage Door was the play, human—tragic, heart-warming wth riotous humor and real romance. Once more the student body watched in silent (sometimes not so silent) amazement as their classmates, unassuming kids like Jeanne Felli, Bill Eads, Jack Ewald, Paula Gelb, Marie Clode, Pat Strahlendorff, Pat Hornney, Jeanne Marie La Bonty, and many others, became shining, distant, intriguing stars for a night. A challenging experience for the audience as well as the performers!

The Senior Student Council

THE Senior Student Council, under the sponsorship of Miss Isabel Meyers, is the representative body of the Senior High School. Its aims are to create at better understanding between the faculty and the students, to develop an interest in student government, and to give the students a chance to contribute their ideas and suggestions toward a better school.

The officers are: Harold Busching, president; Harold Hulka, vice-president; Alice Bolinder, secretary; and Donald W. Maloney, treasurer.

Front Row: Barbara Gardner, Jean Hyers, Harold Hulka—Vice President, Alice Bolinder—Secretary, Harold Bushing—President, Donald Maloney—Treasurer, Jack Gilsdorf, Grafton Perry.

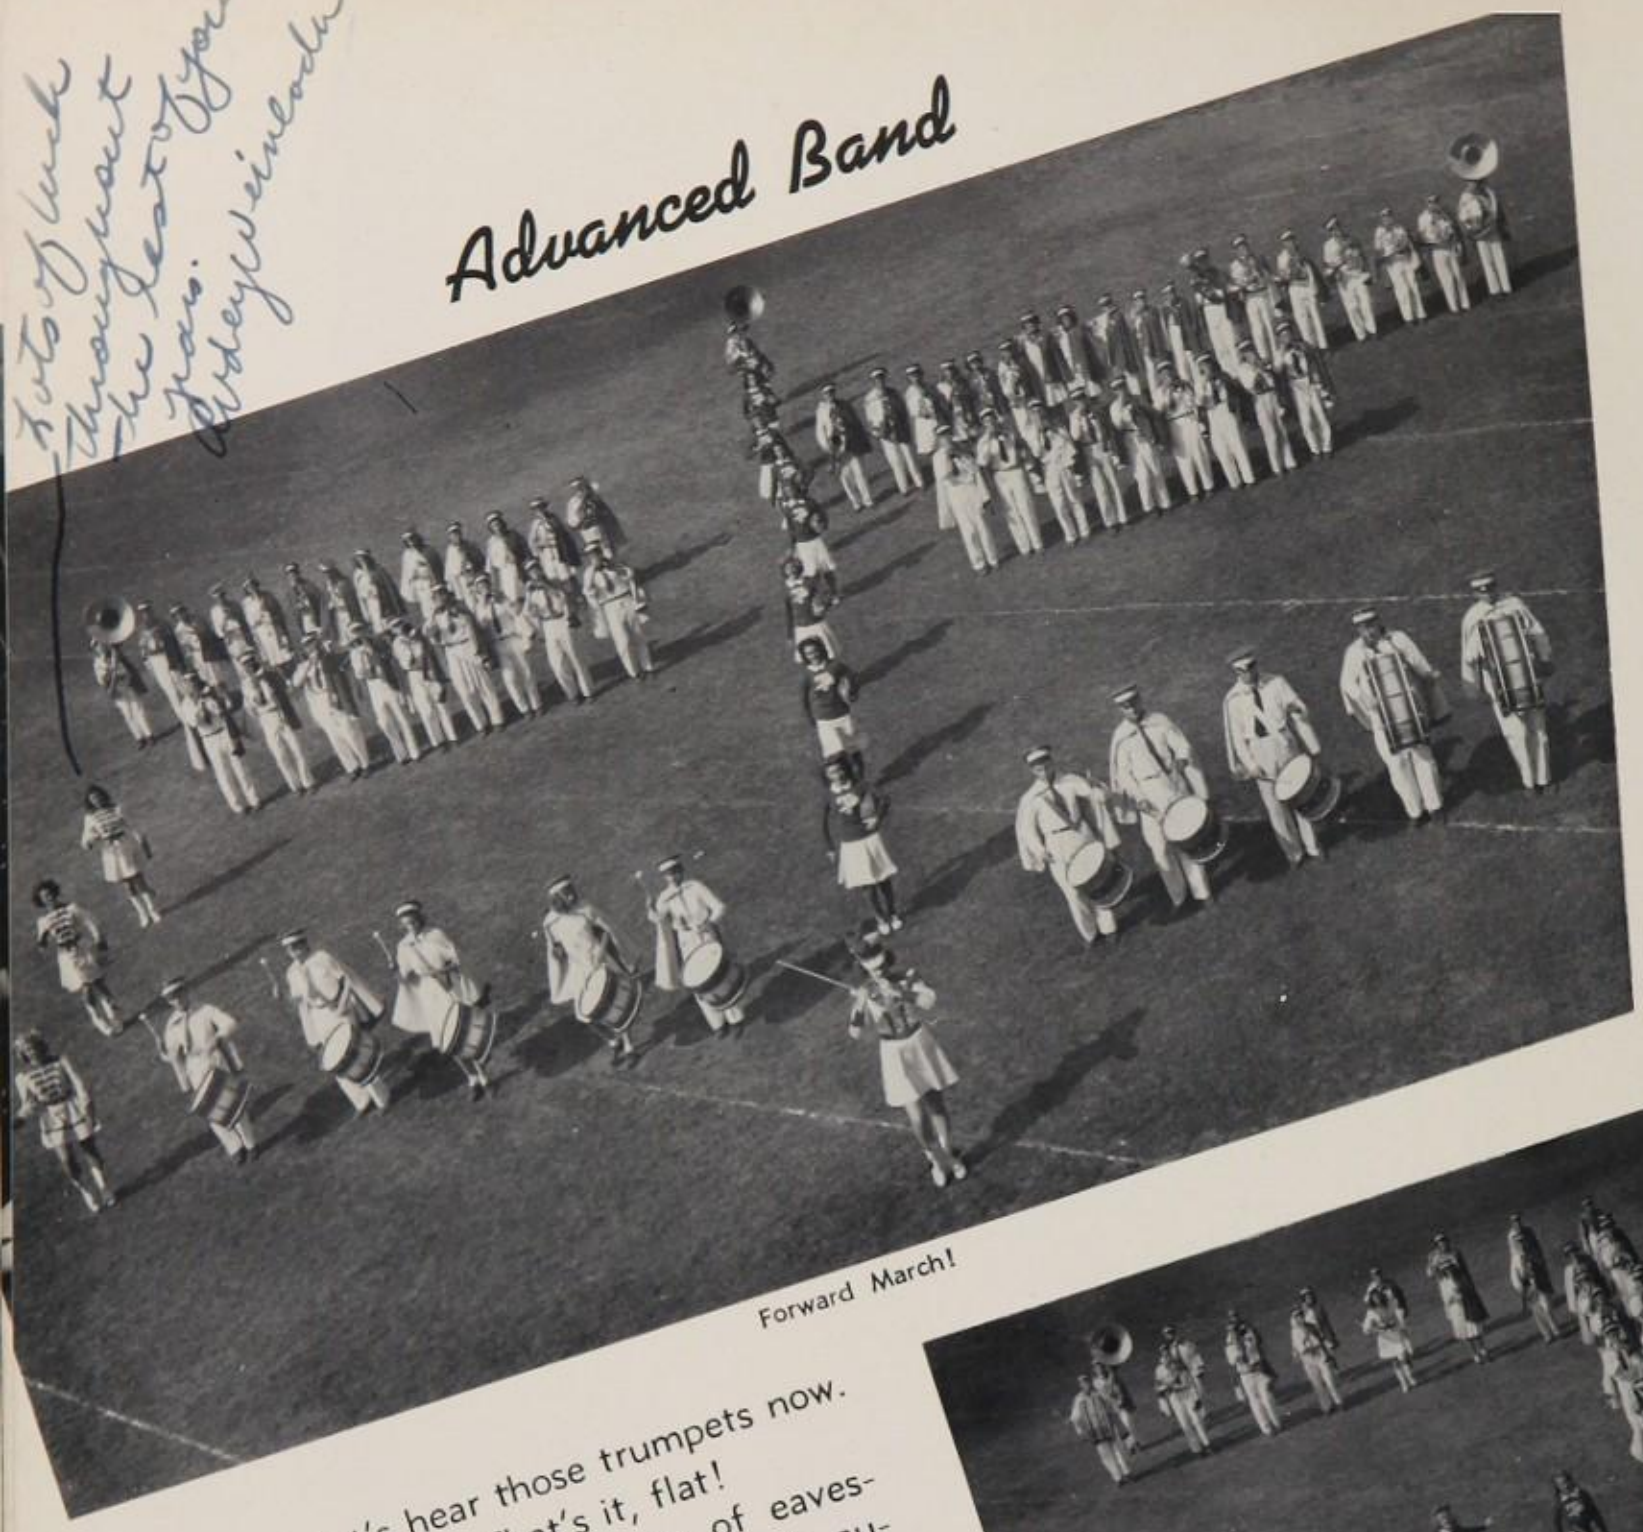
The Student Service

ENFORCEMENT of the student laws of the school is the duty of the members of the Student Service under the leadership of Dick Court, Captain, and Mr. Wilson, Faculty Adviser. The faithful crew may have the advantage of a three minute leeway, leaving and entering class; but they must also spend twice as much time as the rest of us being pushed and pulled by the endless throngs of students.

Advanced Band



Forward March!

MR. MAIRS
Band Master

Let's have the jazz cheer!

"OKAY. Let's hear those trumpets now. No, no, E flat. That's it, flat! Through the ancient custom of eavesdropping, we can obtain a reasonably authentic picture of the struggles in that obscure corner of the Junior Wing which somehow emerge as the faultless tone and intricate precision maneuvers for which our band is justly well-famed.

We have also to thank the guiding hand of Donald Mairs, most recent addition to the faculty, for the "jazz cheer" and solid swing arrangements which set the opposing stands, if not their respective teams, back on their heels during our epochal football season.

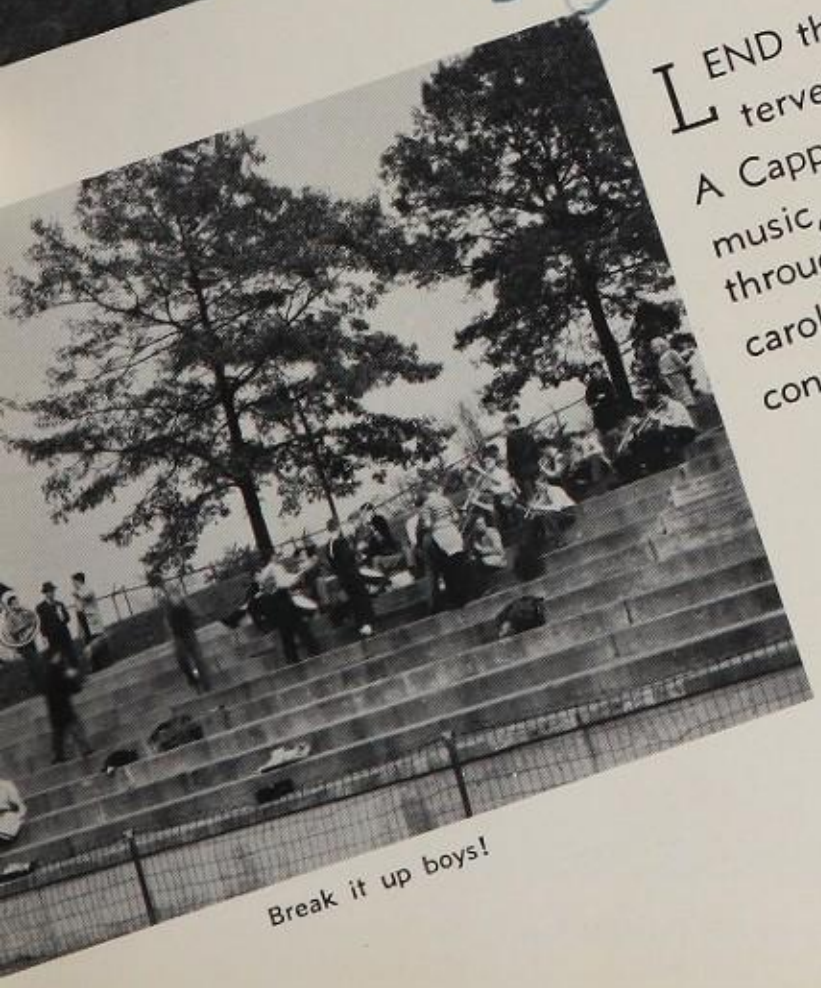
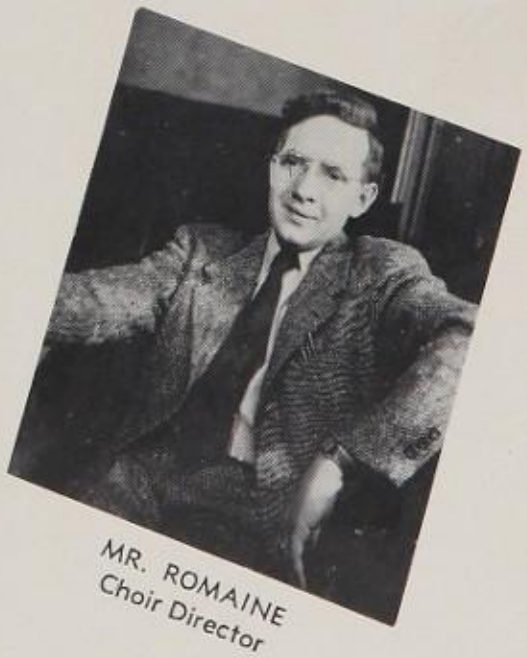
A Cappella Choir

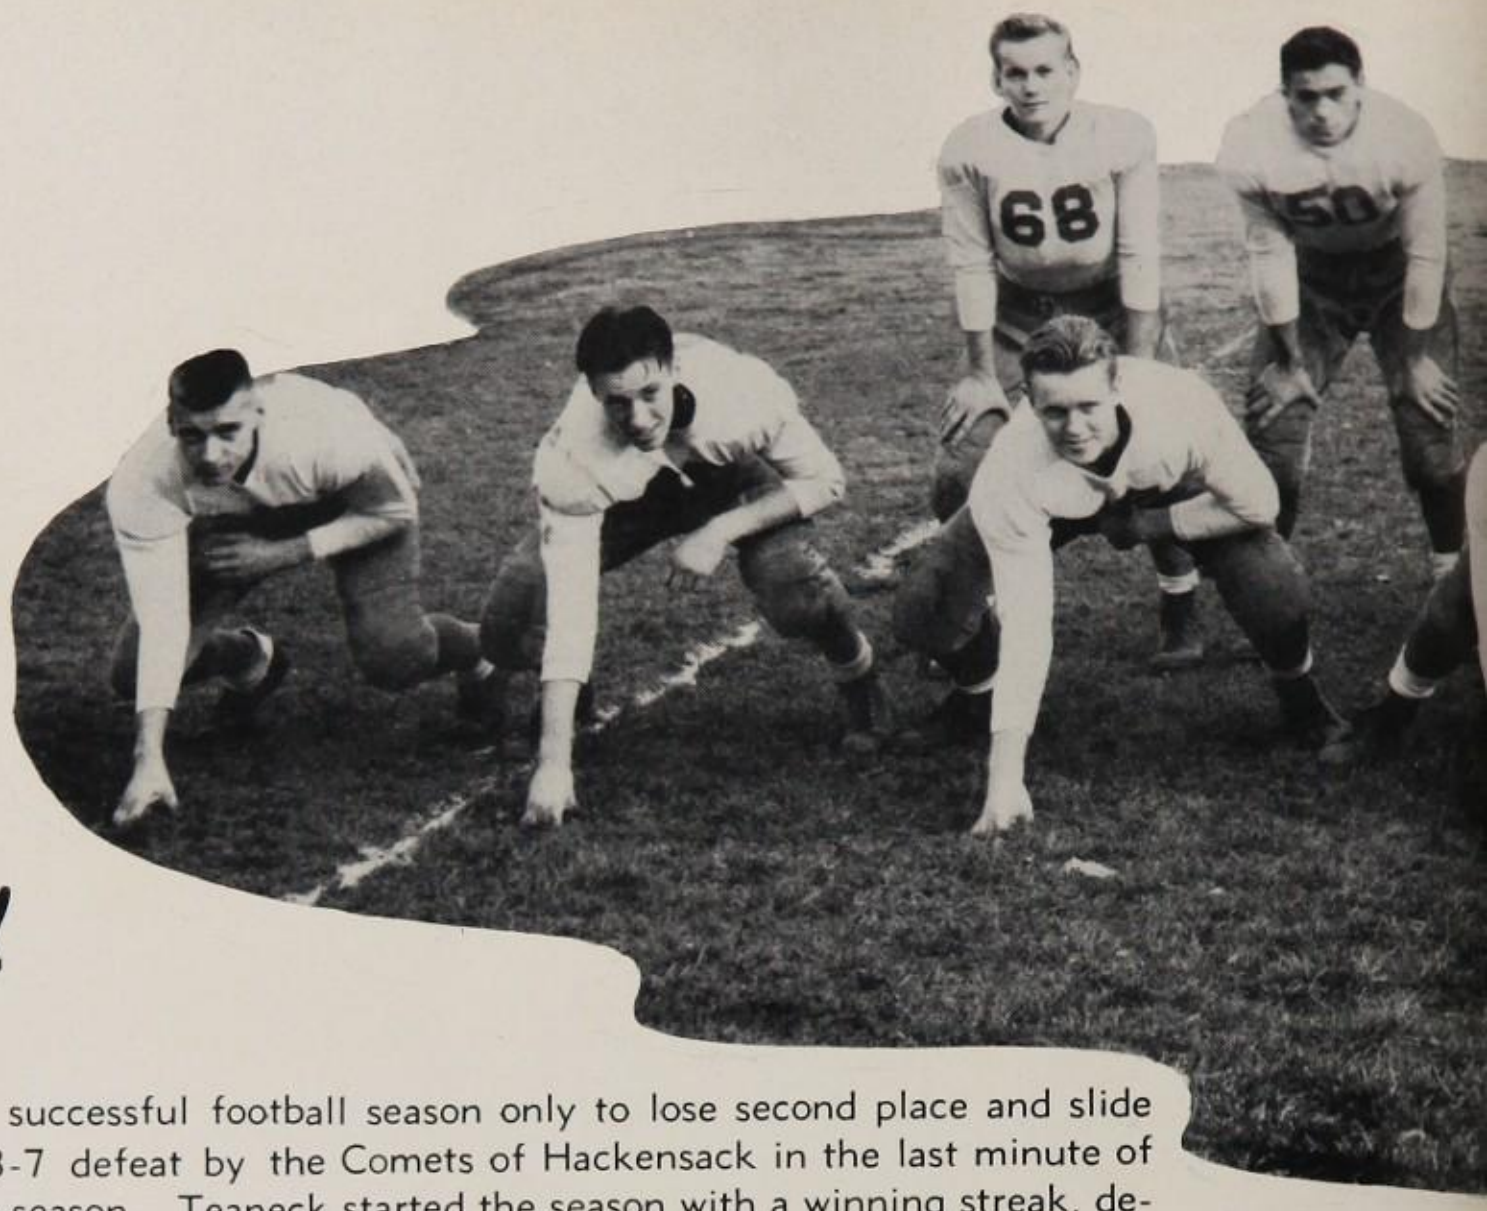
LEND them your ears, ye lovers of euphony, for with none other than Wes-tervelt B. Romaine hitting the proper notes, Teaneck High's distinguished A Cappella Choir presents in its usual enthusiastic manner, stirring choral music, superior in both beauty and harmony of tone. Their many activities throughout the year included music for several assembly programs, Christmas caroling, the Christmas program itself, and, of course, the annual spring concert.



Break it up boys!



MR. ROMAINE
Choir Director



Football

TEANECK went through a successful football season only to lose second place and slide into fourth through a 13-7 defeat by the Comets of Hackensack in the last minute of play in the final game of the season. Teaneck started the season with a winning streak, defeating Lodi 6-0, Butler 7-0, and Tenafly 19-0. Leonia, N.N.J.I.L. champs, threw Teaneck for a 19-0 loss, but the Highwaymen came back the next week to down Englewood 21-0, and the Ridgefield Park grid team 28-7. Teaneck then lost two tilts, one to Ridgewood 6-20, and the other to Rutherford 7-21. Teaneck defeated Cliffside Park 22-0, as Fabe Racioppi, Ronnie Page, Charlie Gunner, and Jim Lyons galloped through Cliffside's defenses. Ronnie Page, star halfback, had a bad season, being injured in the Tenafly game and having to take it easy in the ensuing games. The team was ably coached by Mr. Anderson, Mr. Finn, and Mr. Breisch. The assistance of Mr. Law and Mr. Moore was much appreciated.

Second Row: Warren Pushaw, Richard Court, Joseph Di Matteo, Eugene Fernekes, Rollin Schuster, Richard Tomlinson, Sal Popalardo, Martin Williamson, James Lyons, Joseph O'Neill.

Third Row: Hugh C. Johannessen, Herman Michels, John Daly, Gerry Royals, Sam Cavalier.

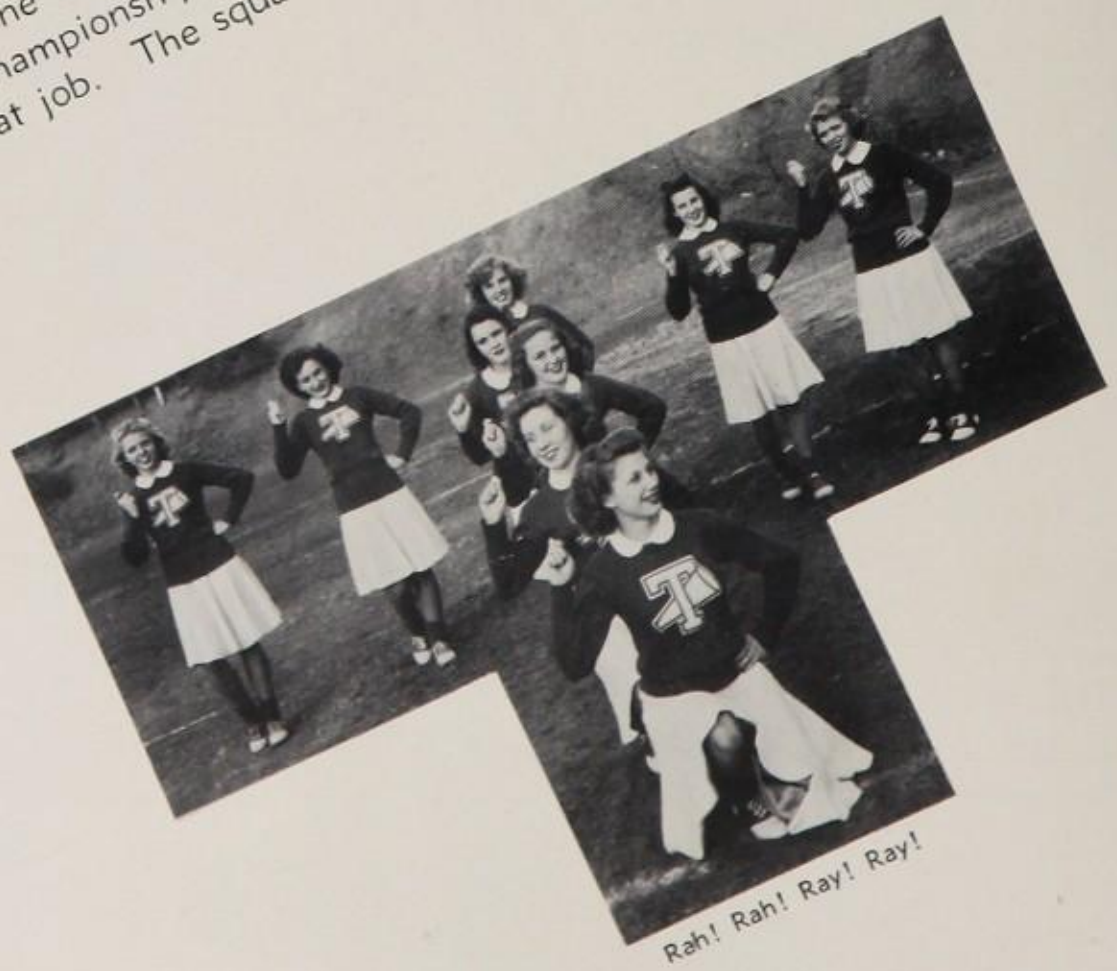
Soccer

DESPITE the excellent playing tactics of Mark Teaney, Ken Eilerman, Joe Cavaliere, Joe Svitanek, Kenneth Zimmerman and the rest of the soccer squad, Teaneck went through a mediocre season, chalking up three wins, two ties and nine losses. This can be attributed to the fact that few on our last year's championship team were with us this year—and we think our boys did a great job. The squad was ably led by Coach Frame.



Rah! Rah! Ray! Ray!

Hockey and Soccer

"GATHER ye rosebuds while ye may" . . . the athletic field any afternoon at 3:25 during the hockey and soccer season . . . guaranteed no broken bones, but lots of fun! Anyone can play; that is, if she can distinguish between a soccer ball and a hockey stick, and if she is in garb of azure. It's a healthful, refreshing and friendly atmosphere and a wonderful way to have an all around good time.

Te-Hi Service Club

THE Te-Hi-Service Club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Lischer, has proven invaluable to the school as well as to the servicemen through its excellent work in sending out birthday and Christmas cards and in providing free lunches for former Teaneck students now in the armed forces.

Nancy Earl is the president.

Art Service Squad

SIGNS, posters, placards—it's the Art Service Squad! This select group is composed of honest, hard-working people who have a genuine interest in art. With deft strokes of brush or pen, they fulfill all work assigned to them by their respective teachers with no other reward than the valuable practice and experience they acquire.

First Row: Audrey Palmer, Dot Mooney, Doris Rossi, Irene Golden, Joan Ganzemuller, Cherlotte Schoenburg, Erna Reass, Doris Skinner, Ruth Clark, Jean Flanagan, Barbara Murray.

Second Row: Joan Lasterquit, Marie Moore, Marie Clode, Janet Adolphi, Claire Breitenstein, Rina Fantoni, Eileen Tevlin, Thelma Mueller, Natalie Seib, Winnie Fitch, Dot Zelkosky, Betsy Perkins.

Kneeling: Herbert Nubler, Bob Baker, Dave Bernstein, Mr. Ice—Sponsor.

The Library Council

ALWAYS ready to do their duty, the members of the Library Council are the sincere group of hard-working students who collect those little scraps of pink paper we dash around so much to get hold of! We might add that we heartily approve of our new librarian, Mr. Ice, and the changes that have been made this year, such as signing out for books.

Red Cross

PERHAPS one of the worthiest school organizations is the Red Cross, directed by the three D's . . . Duffy, Danckwerth and Devaney, and their able president, Diane Limenfeld.

Selling hot dogs, filling stockings, collecting magazines for servicemen and making afghans are some of their unselfish activities.

Second Row: Dolores McMullen, Jean Hendricksen, Lila Stechel, Sondra Hellman, Alda Lee Gilden, Erna Reass, Janice Synes, Virginia Ahern, Janet Price.

Hi-Y

Best of luck always.
George Barrett

Seated: Joe DiMatteo-Pres., William Eads-Vice Pres., Paul Volcker-Treas., Norman Barthelson-Sec'y.

Third Row: Mr. Moore-Sponsor, Gene Fernekes, Dick Court, David Bayer, Donald Dinnsen, William Rowe, Richard Werner, Bruce Tatge, George Barrett.

THE Hi-Y's activities are almost too numerous to mention—donations to charities, services to our community, "the promotion of clean scholarship, clean sportsmanship,"—and clean faces! These are the aims and accomplishments of this always successful organization whose guiding stars are Mr. Moore, and president, Joseph Di Matteo.

Girl's League

Seated: Marjorie Grahn-Treas., Pat Lawson-Pres., Barbara Rolka-Vice Pres., Joan Ganzemuller-Sec'y.

Standing: Alma Miller, Helen Pavclivich, Jean Harris, Jean Christie, Barbara Murray, Dorothy Fess, Barbara Freidman, Nancy Jordan, Jean Flanagan.

FROM the melodic strains of "Can't Get to Heaven" from the musical of the same name, to the equally melodic tinkle of cups and saucers (Mother and Daughter Night, of course) the numerous accomplishments of the Girls' League are laid out for all the world to see. Literally rolling in wealth, its treasury bubbling over with the profits reaped from its various enterprises, the League has contributed generously to many school organizations. Much of the League's success can be attributed to its sponsors Miss Ruehe and Miss Smith, its capable president, Pat Lawson, and its hard working members.

Third Row: Henry Frank, Bill Laggett, John DeBaun, Audrey Weinlader, Alethea Lyder, Thyrrice Hanson, Jean Simmons, Jean Hyers, Nancy Taylor, Marilyn Dodds, Pat Jones, Don Toppel, John Peters, Victor Strand, Karl Frund, Bob Forscutt, Ray Woodfield.
Fourth Row: Charles Sohn, Zarah Poosikian, Chester Maves, Dolson Conklin, Erving Farr, John Dietrick, Paul Roncin, Mathew Reardon, Philip Bonds, Edmund Schiele, Bob Croonquist, Lennard Chase, Roy Casper, Arnold Spector, Charlie Graef.

Rifle Club

WITH their sturdy 22's slung over their shoulders, the members of the Rifle Club proceed twice weekly to the range, where they make bull's eyes with apparent ease. Whoa there! Not so fast—it takes weeks of endless practice before they can even hit the target. But by June they are all experts—especially their sponsor Mr. Rosen.

Riding Club

"OH I'm Back in the Saddle Again"—With this as its theme song the Riding Club takes to the saddle every Thursday afternoon for the purposes of improving their health and posture . . . or so they say, anyway. We'd like to bet they have more fun than anything. The club's triumverate of sponsors includes the Misses Quinn, Guerber and Tully. A horse-show, dance and hayride were three of the planned activities.

Seated: Miss Quinn, Sponsor; Ruth Stewart, Vice-President; Alice Winters, Treasurer; Marjorie Orel.
Third Row: Marcia Cunckel, Artleen Hargroves, John Nugent, Charles Speilman, Nancy Earmhouse, Connie Haase, Winnie Fitch, Rina Fantoni.

Third Row: Dorothy Nelson, Ann Creutzburg, Audrey Brockway, Doris Wardell, Beverly Johnson, Doris Keegan, Claire Trubeck, Doris Hoppenwrath, Nita Bookstaver.

International Relations Forum

THE opinion has been voiced by various members of the adult group that the younger generation is lost. We wish the same critics might have an opportunity to sit in on one of the meetings of the I. R. F. which is under the guidance of Mrs. Lyon and Pat Waesche. The members of this organization conduct intelligent, thoughtful discussions of world problems with all the seriousness of any mature person.

Opera Club

BETTER than Patrice Munsel! Better than Lauritz Melchior! Greater than the Met!! That's right, the Opera Club! They know the scores, the themes, the arias, and the stories of the operas; in fact they attend operas, and the club is a member of the Metropolitan Opera Guild.

Their prima donna is Edna Watts. Miss Colburn is their director.

Front Row: Eugenia Pedoli, Miss Colburn, Sponsor; Terry Valkos, Secretary; Edna Watts, President; Alice Hartmeyer, Treasurer.

Second Row: Joy Ann Rolka, Betty Losey, Ruth Clark, Ruth Stewart, Denise Politi, Dorothy Weber.

Third Row: Marjorie Seip, Barbara Rolka, Edith Lindaman, Betty Franzblau, Doris Wardell, Betty Ann Johnson.

Seated: Mr. Kroner, Sponsor; Edward Emmer, Vice-President; Donald W. Maloney, President; Jack Gilsdorf, Secretary-Treasurer.

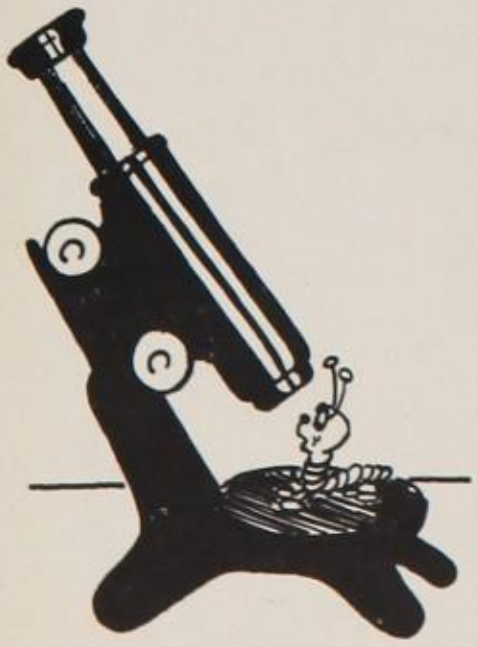
Active Atoms

AS if seven periods of fooling around with atoms and all their villainous counterparts weren't enough, there are certain individuals among us who not only go in for more contact with atoms—they get active about it! However, such association with the mental stimulae extended by A. J. seems to agree with them, judging from the humor for which President Donald W. Maloney is famed.

Biology Club

FOR those who find insufficient glee in persecuting innocent grasshoppers in class, there is always the Biology Club of which Miss Busché is the chief surgeon. Here they can cut, and gaze into microscope to their hearts content. Membership is open to those students studying Biology and who maintain an average of B or higher.

Seated: Merill Gellis, President; Richard Mascolo, Vice-President; Robert Franz, Secretary; Audrey Millange, Treasurer.
Second Row: Patricia Colley, Miss Busche, Sponsor; Marian Andersen, Maryellen McIlvaine, Dorothy Miloche, Marjorie Brown, Virginia Ahern, Letti Bonnington, Betty Aird, Helen Humphreys.
Third Row: Bart Whitlock, Bob Zimmermann, Donald West, Russel Vollmer, Malcolm Harris, Donald Toppel.



Bowling Club

WAXED, polished floors, the pungent odor of resin blended with creamy white chalk dust, "Set 'em up in the alley, boys!"

With such enchanting atmosphere awaiting them, Mrs. Vanderbilt and her charges are off to the "Teaneck Rec" every Thursday afternoon to indulge in this fascinating game. This club has the distinction of being the only one in which all the members want to go on strike!

Drafting Club

THE Drafting Club provides the opportunity for talented students to do special work related to various technical fields, such as engineering, aircraft, and architecture. Frequent discussions concerning mechanical drawing and its relation to various technical and industrial fields, are led by Mr. Puro, the club's sponsor and their president, Robert Franz. Among the club's activities are visits to industrial plants and technical exhibitions.

Seated: Bernice Hossfield, Robert Franz, President; Edith Sneath, Secretary; Jack Lange.
Standing, First Row: Mr. Puro, Sponsor; Robert Weissman, Donald Montbriand, Edward Cosgrove, Joseph Jablin.
Standing, Back Row: John Smithers, Joan Kamens, Maurice Volk, Alfred Schmidt.

Chess Club

FIRST we would have it known that anything requiring more concentration than dominoes is quite beyond the range of a mind tutored only in the lesser arts of chemistry, physics, and the like. Therefore we make no pretense about chess . . . we don't understand it! But word reaches us that the club, sponsored by Miss Adamo and boasting such illustrious members as D. W. Maloney and E. Emmer, has chalked up an excellent record in matches with nearby schools, as well as in inter-club tournaments.

Kamera Club

MR. EARLIN and his camera fiends are at it again! From the very first click of the shutter to the gleaming finished product, these hearty folk run the gamut of photographic motions. The club has a monthly assignment, and the members are eager workers and are anxious for constructive criticism.

Ronald Burrows is the president.

Writers Club

GERTRUDE STEIN is the project in the hands of the Writers Club as we go to press. If the members don't go too enmeshed in an analysis of this lofty psychology, they hope to use what energy they retain for a trip to the theater. The club's sponsor, Mr. Church, has done a noble job of recruiting members who are glad he caught them now that they have reached the sanctum sanctorum. Their able president is Gloria Girardon.

Apparatus Club

WE have observed that Teaneck High has everything—there is a slight addition to be made. We have acrobats too! They practice their antics under the demure title of the Apparatus Club. But don't let the name fool you! Those girls can really do things with ropes and rings.

Seated: Joan Stewart, Marilyn Reid, Ilene Wohlberg, Lyn Merriman.
Standing: Betty Andersen, Barbara Freidman, Lois Hilgeman, Dorothy Weber, Ruth Stewart, Barbara Walteback, Miss Toronto, Sponsor.

Front Row: Edith Lindman, Ruth Stewart, Gene Lutters, Mildred Liedeberg, Treasurer; Kathleen Regas, President; Wanda Nuhn, Vice-President; Denise Politi.
Second Row: Dorothy Ziegfeld, Rose Rubinetti, Pat Meo, Theresa Meloy, Lois Hilgeman, Elaine Puccarelli, Helen English, Ruth Lakfaian, Marianne Burger.

Leaders Club

THE Leaders Club is what its name implies, the leader of all senior high girls' sports. Their bang-up year reached its climax in a series of playdays with various neighboring schools, in which the members participated in seasonal sports and et!!

Kathleen Regas is the president, Wanda Nuhn the vice-president, Barbara Wright the secretary, and Mildred Tiedeberg the treasurer.

Teaneck Sports Club

T. S. C., a stepping stone to the Leaders Club is also a prerequisite of it. Under the sponsorship of Miss Toronto and the leadership of its president, Marilyn Reid, the club was successful in many sport activities including roller skating, bowling, and outdoor frolics.

First Row: Miss Toronto, Sponsor; Gwen Schwartz, Joan Stewart, Marilyn Reid, Joan Swerr, Betty Andersen, Ilene Wohlberg, Italy Tulli.
Second Row: Patricia Meo, Ruthann Fox, Muriel Vanderclute, Edna Schwartz, Theresa Meloy, Eleanor Panzenhagen, Lila Stechckel, Jean Henriksen, Dolores McMullen.
Third Row: Lyn Meriman, Dorothy Fess, Edna Watts, Barbara Walteback, Barbara Friedman, Claire Stevenson, Marjorie Birds, Belle Laird.
Fourth Row: Marjorie Veltri, Joan Green, Daphne Church, Janet Gould, Eileen Steinbrook, Jackie Rollat, Traude Teutch, Norma Freck.

The Jug

. . . Little Brown Jug, how I love thee.

Time out to catch your breath.

The chaperones enjoy themselves too.

First Row: Peter Gauharou, Traude Teutch, Secretary; Helen Pratt, Vice-President; Janice Synes, President; Jack Ewald, Treasurer; Sandra Hellman, Joan Gordon.
Second Row: Miss Devaney, Sponsor; Alice Hartmeyer, Ruth Stewart, Betty Ann Johnson, Gloria-Anne Leclercq, Rolean Keil.
Third Row: Judy Moreinis, Sally Miller, Violet Dawson, Marilyn Savage, Doris Wardell, Marjorie Harper, Lillian Meyer, Joan Garrison.
Fourth Row: Bob Zimmermann, Paul Gelb, Beverly Johnston, Jeannette Morey, Eileen Steinbruck, Joan Swett, Jackie Rollat, Joan Rollat.

French Club

ON alternate Monday afternoons, Miss Devany and her elite group of Frenchmen hold forth in Room 213 for further study and discussion of the complexities of the French language. Attempting to raise their vocabularies from the level of "bon jour" to something on a plane with "bonsoir," they speak for the most part, in French. Their activities have been numerous and successful.

"Die Deutschen Kameradan"

"DIE DEUTSCHEN KAMERADAN" club social, intellectual, of various activities, including group singing, the study of Germany and its people, correspondence with members in the service, a Christmas party and a trip to New York. Any student in the German classes or those who have completed one year of German may join.

Barbara Haupt is the president, Don Becker is the vice president, Eleanor Panzenhagen the secretary, Elizabeth Zuschlag the treasurer. The club is sponsored by Miss Marion E. Smith.

Front Row: Miss Smith, Sponsor; Joanne Dickson, Eleanor Panzenhagen, Secretary; Barbara Haupt, President; Elizabeth Zuschlag, Treasurer; Marian Gutersloh, Dorothy Zuschlag, Jeanne Holsh.
Second Row: Virginia Byrkit, Nancy Meighan, Pat Meo, Jerry Levine, Herbert Scheu, Beryl Jaeger, Bill Cronin, Erik Juenge.

Beginning Spanish Club

¿Sabe usted hablar espanõl? The members of the first year Spanish Club couldn't—(that is, until they joined Miss Adamo's Hispañolas!) Now they are Spaniards!! Not only can they speak Spanish, they also sing in Spanish, study the culture of Spanish speaking countries, and see them fhrough lantern slides.

The Spanish Club

EVERY other Thursday afternoon, strange sounds can be heard in the vicinity of Room 321. This is the headquarters of the well-known Spanish Club, where under the direction of Señorita Woods and Señor Carter, the first rule of etiquette is "hable usted español, solamente."

Often, the members lift their voices in Spanish song, or see Spanish motion pictures and travelogues. On special occasions there are special Spanish speakers and refreshments, (Spanish, of course!). The atmosphere simply reeks with Spanish and they love it!

Red Cross Members Aid in War Effort

In the five months that school has been open, the Red Cross has given tremendous aid to the war effort. They have made gift boxes which were sent overseas to our fighting men. They had an assembly, to which the students contributed generously.

At the present time they are in the process of making quilts. When they are completed, there will be fifteen in all.

Teaneck Tops Bogota, Lodi; Bows to Park

Winding up the first half of the 1944-45 basketball season, the Highwaymen dropped a league tilt to Ridgefield Park, but emerged victorious over two non-league opponents.

Teaneck bowed to the Park in an away game Saturday, January 27, to the tune of 28-22. The Blue and White then traveled to Lodi where they ran over the Rams in a night game that ended 50-34. Following this victory, Teaneck once again played a night game, this time against Bogota, and was again on top, 34-29.

The Parkers, who had played an aggressive game throughout, handed Teaneck its third league defeat. [illegible] the way; Teaneck from beginning

COURT QUINTET ENDS SEASON WITH 12-6

TEANECK'S Basketball mites wound up the 1945 season with a creditable record of 12 wins and 6 losses. Teaneck opened up the start of the season and was taken as one of the most powerful teams in the league, but the loss of Captain Tom McKelvey to the Navy weakened our chance of bringing home the N. N. J. I. L. championship. Danny Witt, the team's high scorer set a new record this year. Counting all the games played this season, Dan ended up by coping third place in the league and twelfth place among the county high scorer.

The majority of scoring went to Teaneck's scoring twins Danny Witt and Frank Brielmeir, but the team was well backed up by Ozzie Hurley, Jum Lyons, and Paul Volcker.

BASKETBALL TEAM

Second Row: Paul Volker, Frank Breilmeir, Bob Hurley, Dan Witt, Jim Lyons.
Third Row: Donald Dinnsen, John Steel, Howard Conklin, Donald Drake, Otto Rapheal.

Wrestling

THE 1945 Wrestling team under the excellent leadership of Coaches Vorwerk and Humphrey, made a fine record for itself, the co-captains Charles Gunner and Dick Gilliland seeing them through to four victories and two defeats. Nyack, Springfield, Suffern, and Thomas Jefferson fell before the powerful Blue and White, but they lost to Newton and Roselle Park.

Co-Captain Gilliland was the team's high scorer, and Ralph Cornell placed second.

The team was:

103 lb. class Bill Hart
112 lb. class Stan Brajer
120 lb. class Herman Fess and Joe Embrey
127 lb. class Graham McCutcheon
133 lb. class Dick Gilliland
139 lb. class Frank Scolpino
145 lb. class Dave Morrow
155 lb. class Joe Markey
165 lb. class Charlie Gunner
Heavy weight Ralph Cornell

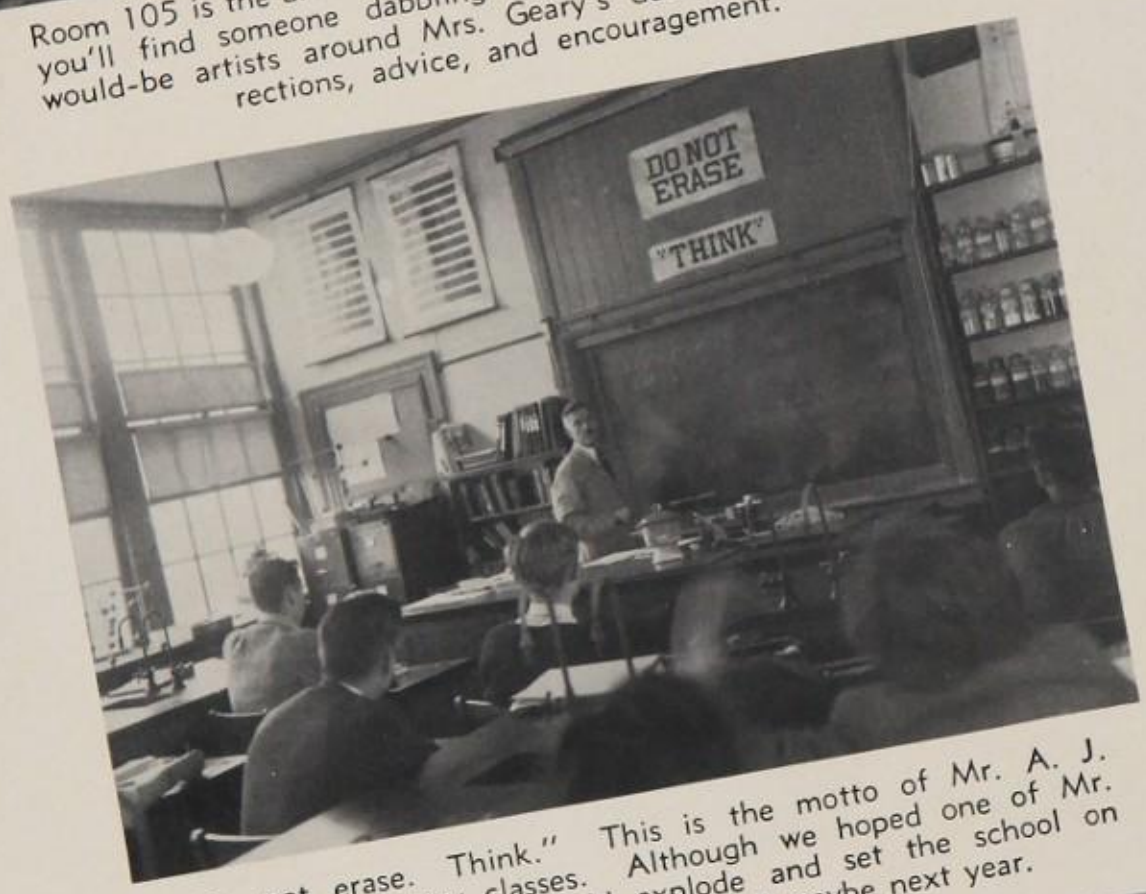
WRESTLING TEAM

Kneeling: Bill Hart, Stanley Brajer, Joe Embry, George Rothery, Graham McCutcheon, Dick Gilliland, Frank Scolopino.

Standing: Dave Morrow, Joe Markey, Charlie Gunner, Ralph Cornell.

WORKERS

Room 105 is the art room. Almost any time you go down there you'll find someone dabbling in paint and a long line of would-be artists around Mrs. Geary's desk waiting for corrections, advice, and encouragement.



"Do not erase. Think." This is the motto of Mr. A. J. Kroner's chemistry classes. Although we hoped one of Mr. Kroner's experiments would explode and set the school on fire, it never happened. Oh, well maybe next year.

In this room Miss Busche and Mr. Drugach have given us a bountiful and beautiful understanding of the birds and the bees and the flowers (and worms and frogs and grasshoppers).

As lunch hour (Ha-Ha) draws near, all eyes constantly watch the clock. Then the bell rings and there is a mad rush down the hall to be the first one in line for lunch tickets.

Around the school there is always work to be done. We can always count on our trusty janitors to be around when our lockers won't open or something else goes wrong.

Bob Hartford thinks he can teach Miss Woods, our beloved Spanish teacher (now do I get that "A"?), something about geography. Maybe he can, who knows?

Who will forget those study halls in the auditorium with Miss Curran standing with her pencil poised above a little pad of white eighth period slips.

Mrs. Vanderbilt's class sits enthralled as the Gov gives out with one of his lengthy orations in the the regular Friday oral composition session.

These girls are really wonderful. The things they turn out under Miss King's supervision awe the entire school. Dresses, suits, blouses, coats roll off the production line in an unending variety and quantity.

Here are the future secretaries and typists in the making (and also an easy 2½ points). Mr. McCalmont is ambling around the room dropping the little hints that mean perfection.

Look at the birdie.

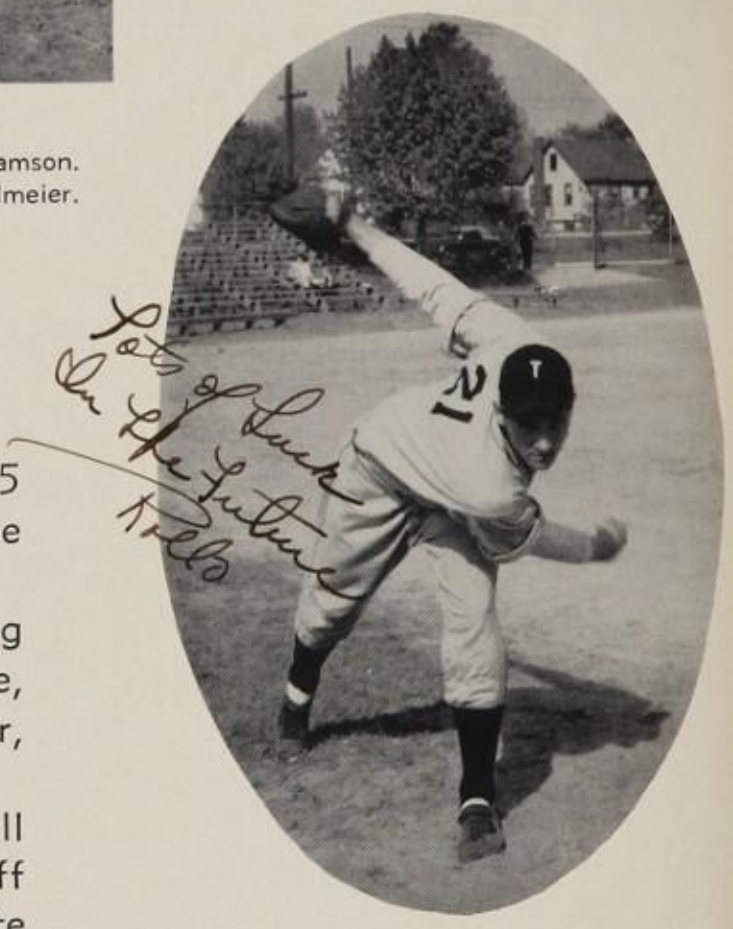
Baseball

WITH six veterans returning from a good '44 squad, the 1945 edition of Teaneck's baseball nine has stamped itself as one of the threats to cop the N. N. J. I. L. title.

Coach Barney Finn welcomes back to his third year of coaching third baseman Frankie Brielmaier, Captain Ronald "Dennis" Page, Mike Verost and Marty Williamson, outfielders; Rollin Schuster, pitcher, and shortstop Billie Murphy.

Packed with power at the plate as a result of Sophomore Bill McCelland and Sid Cordaro's hitting, and a fireball pitching staff headed by Rollin Schuster and Willie Schroeder, the Blue and White are looking forward to one of its best diamond campaigns.



Strike One!

Second Row: Arnold Tenny, Bill Ennis, Norman Reeves, Harold Gerbach, John Steel, Don Dinnsen, Hal Hulka.
Third Row: Charles Powell, Gene Ackerman, Ruppert Bing, Herman Simon, Walter Peter, Norman Jackman, Manager.

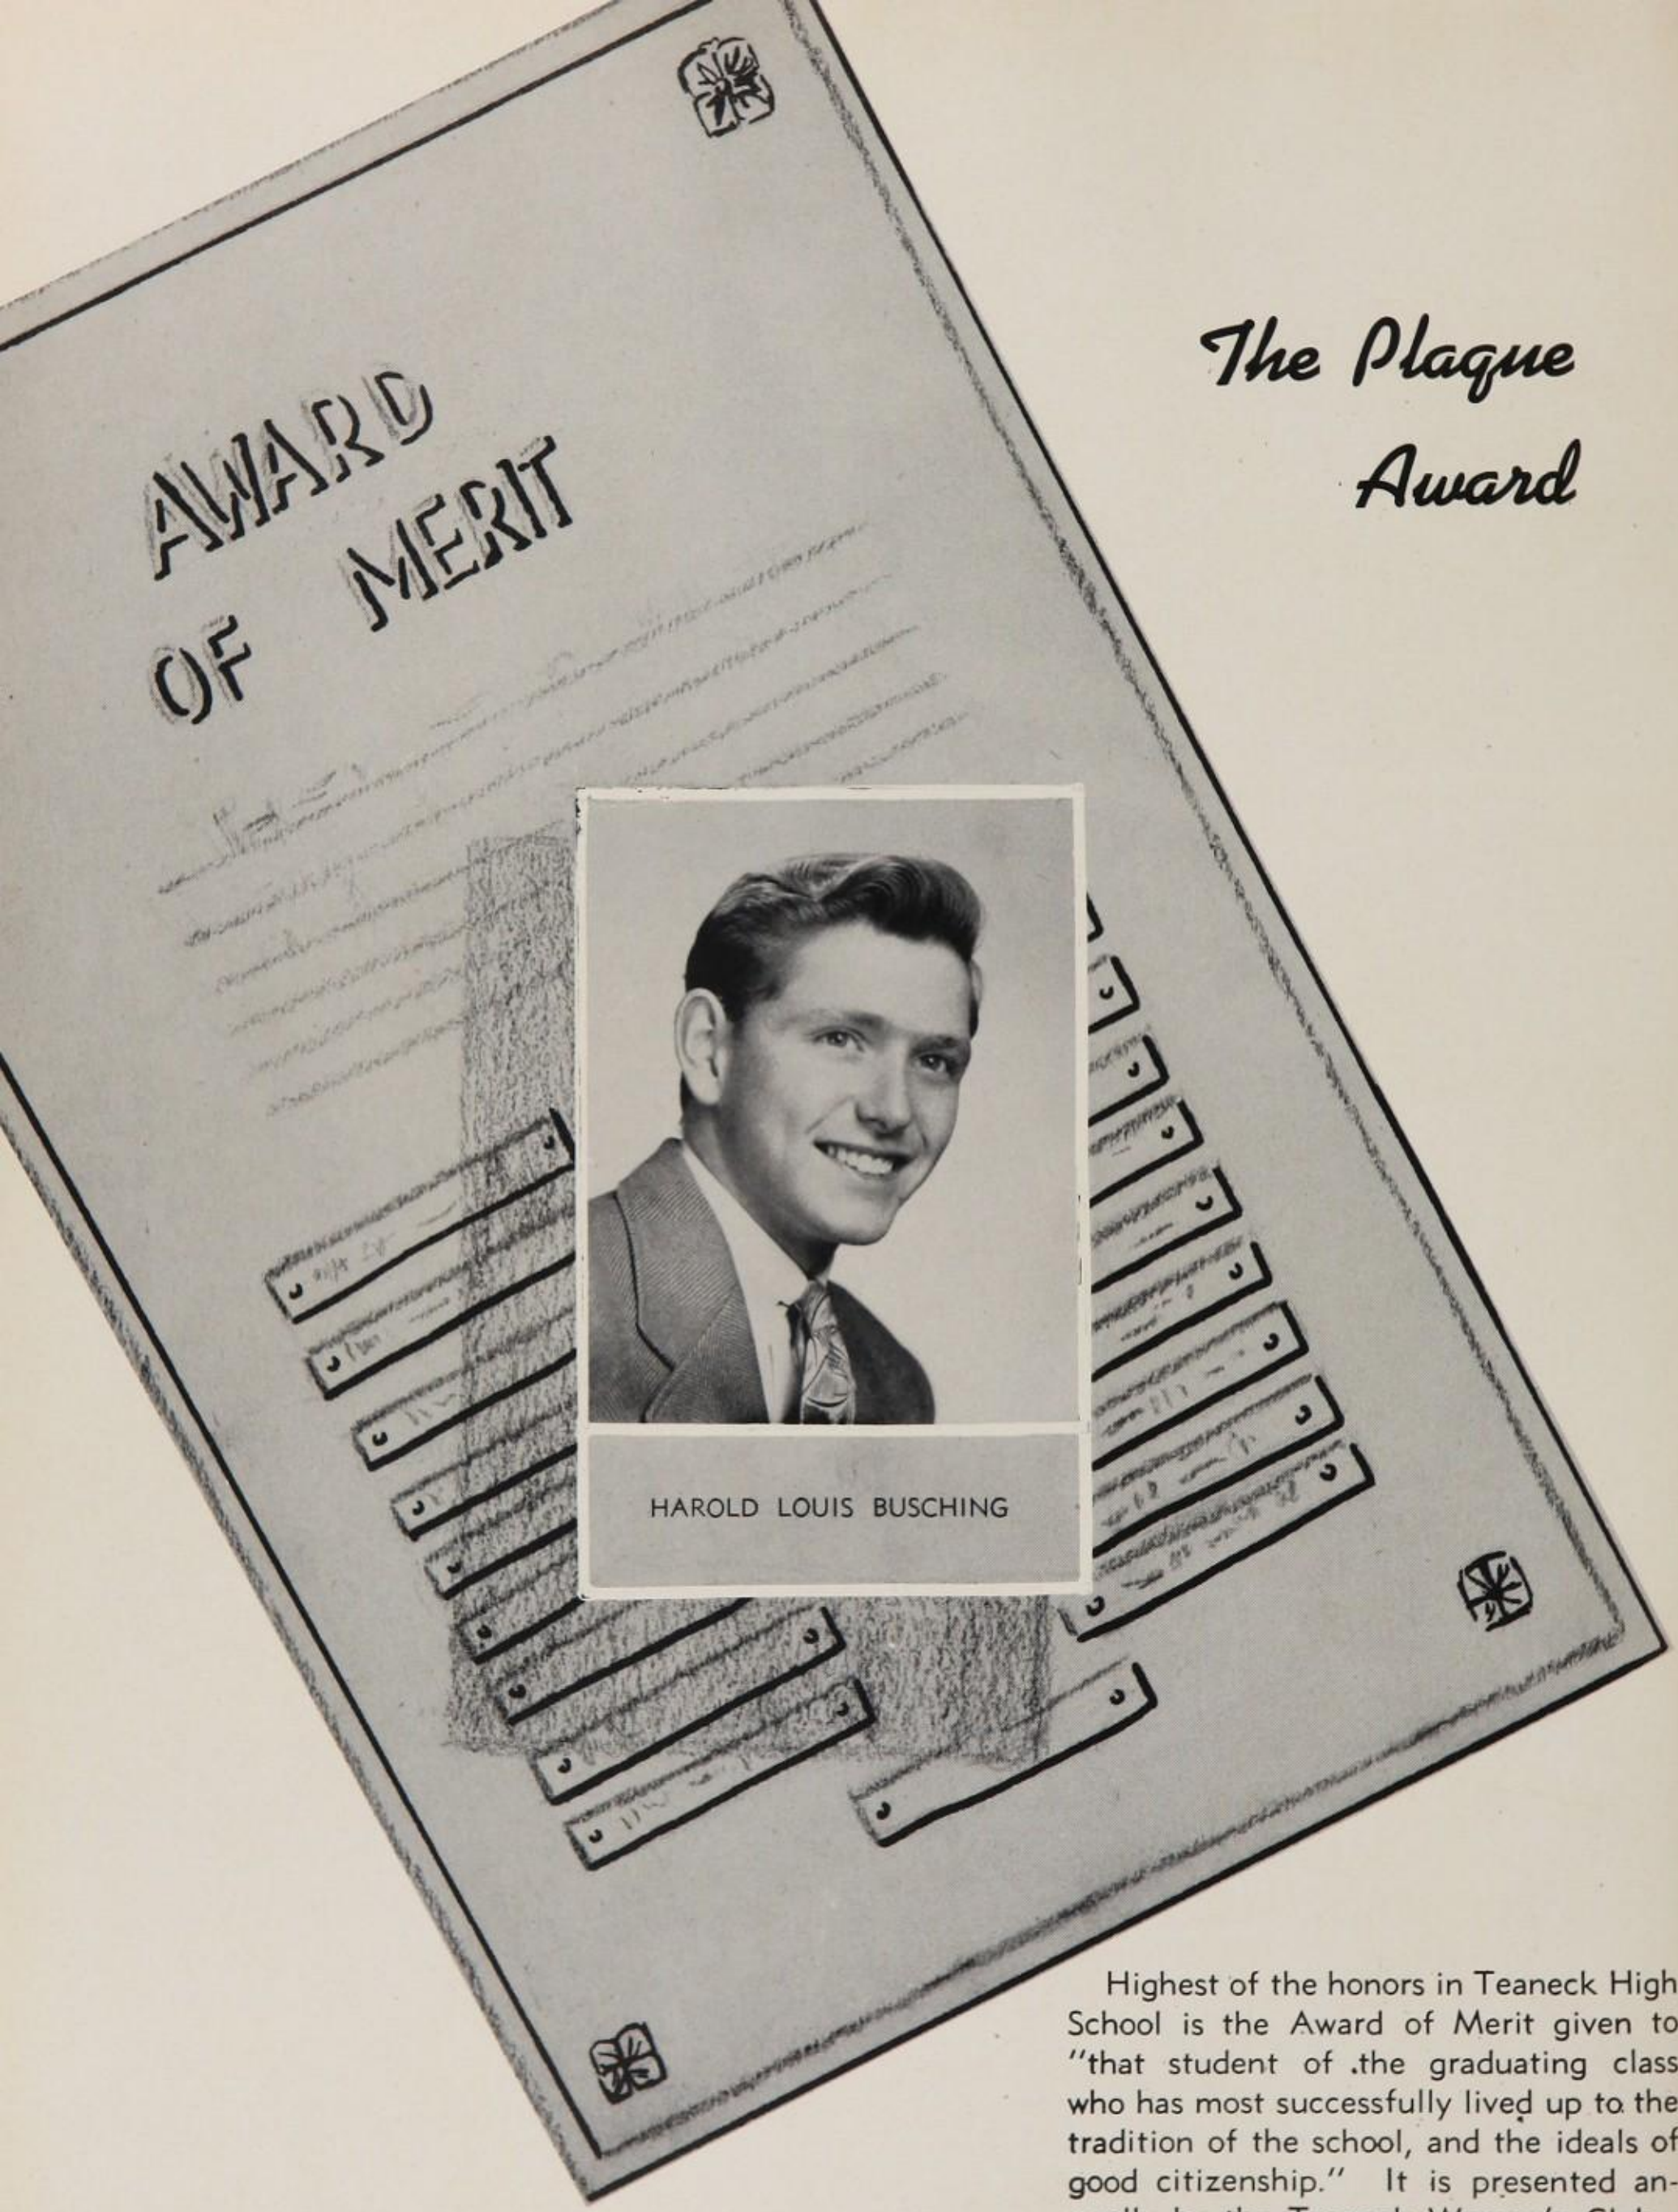
Track

WITH the 1944 N. N. J. I. L. Championship neatly salted away, the cindermen again entered league competition, for the fifth straight year.

Millard C. Smith, in his second year of coaching aptly led the Highwaymen through the schedule which terminated with the N. N. J. I. L. and State Championship meets.

The Plaque Award



HAROLD LOUIS BUSCHING

Highest of the honors in Teaneck High School is the Award of Merit given to "that student of the graduating class who has most successfully lived up to the tradition of the school, and the ideals of good citizenship." It is presented annually by the Teaneck Women's Club.

The 1945 Hi Way congratulates Harold Louis Busching.

National Honor Society

MEMBERSHIP in the National Honor Society is conferred, each year, upon those students compromising approximately fifteen per cent of the senior class, who have displayed exemplary scholarship, leadership, citizenship and service during their years at Teaneck High School. The entire upper third of the senior class is eligible, but admission to the society rests upon the decision of the faculty and vote of the student body.

Boys in Service

BOYS from our school and all other schools, are constantly being called to serve their country before they have a chance to graduate. At the time this book went to press, many of our senior boys had already been called or had joined voluntarily. Among those who are in service already are:

CARL AGERHOLM—Navy
GIRARD BOWKER—Navy
JACK DANIELS—Navy
HERMAN FESS—Navy
DAVID HEEBNER—Navy
LOUIS KELTER—Navy
ROBERT KETTIG—Navy

Through the Week of a Typical Senior Girl

Jackie Colgan

Sunday—She's a good girl, too. Hat, gloves and all the trimmings for an early church service.

Monday—Off to the 5 and 10 for some feminine repair equipment. Can't go to Garrison and Cedar Lane without meeting a few friends.

Tuesday—Over for another day. Boy does that fresh air smell good.

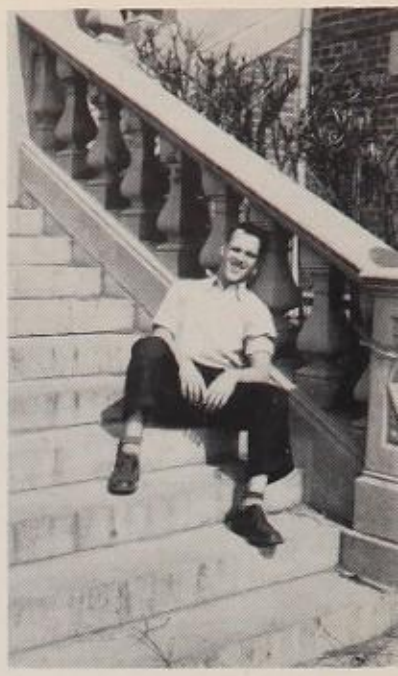
Wednesday—Down to the Red Cross for some bandage rolling. We've all got to do our share.

Thursday—Curl them up tight! Have to look your best for that date tomorrow.

Friday—A high school tradition. The Teaneck Theatre on Friday night.

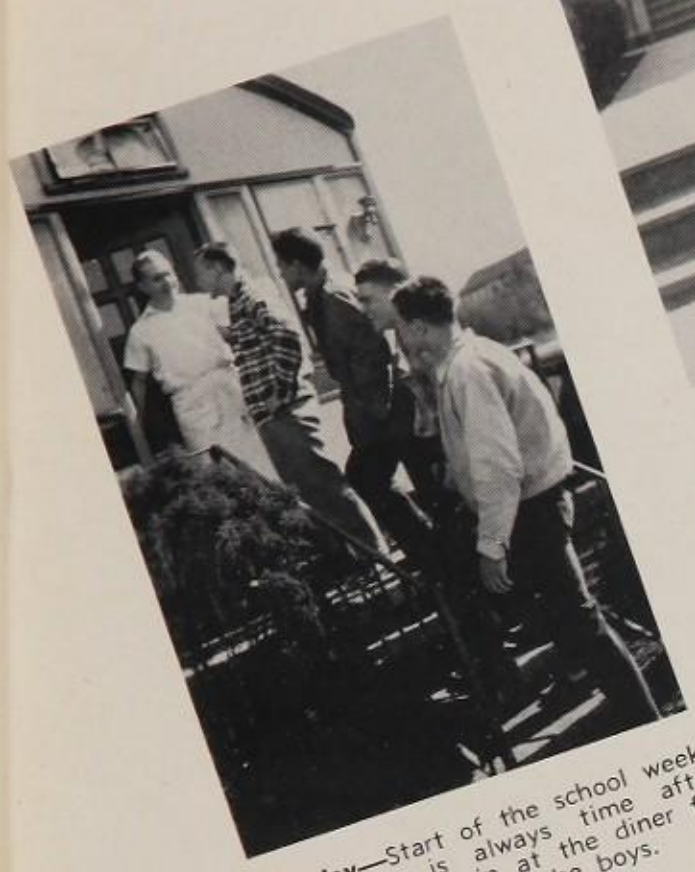
Saturday—Helping mom out with a little elbow grease and a lot of pep.

Through the Week of a Typical Senior Boy



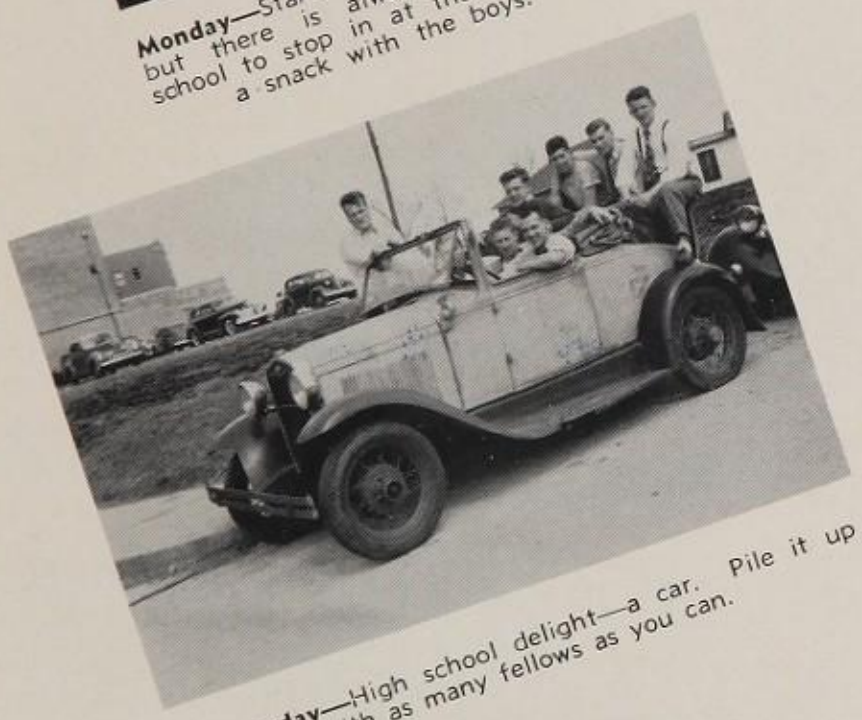
Charlie Gunner

Sunday—Better to go to church than not to. Start the week off right.



Monday—Start of the school week, but there is always time after school to stop in at the diner for a snack with the boys.

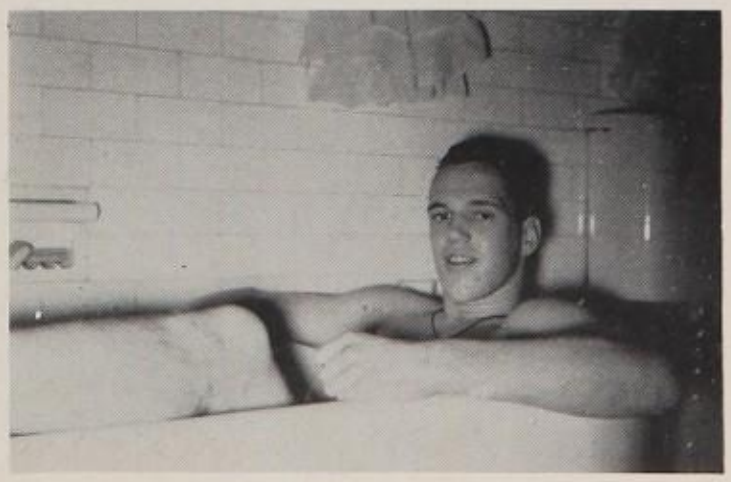
Tuesday—Who would have thought they could get his hair any shorter? But they did. The boys seem to be getting a big kick out of it.



Wednesday—High school delight—a car. Pile it up with as many fellows as you can.

Friday—Too bad! She had other plans, so—down to the Jug for a game of cards with the boys.

Thursday—Good night to try and find a date. Can't wait too long or yourself alone in movies.



Saturday—True to tradition Saturday night is bath night, and Charlie is no exception.

Carl Agerholm

"Aggie's" future is mobile
For in autos he will deal,
Interested too, in dancing, dates,
With many friends, it's high he rates.

Betty Lee Ackerman

"Betts" dislikes conceited folk,
Dancing and concerts her joy;
Art school's her aim, excels in the same;
Her love birds some spare time employ.

Edward G. Allen

Clever "Bud," hates drying pots,
Gets along with all sorts, his age or not.
In college his studies will be scientific,
Swing music and tennis claim preference specific.

Warren Aldoretta

Sports are a sideline for talented, Al,
A real artist-success is his cue;
He'll serve Uncle Sam, then climb to fame,
With determination to see him through.

Nancy Armitage

Admits she's absent minded,
Likes tennis, clothes, and skating.
Her future's in Commercial Art,
On that there's no debating.

Ruth Eleanor Ault

Good natured Ruthie is helpful to all,
Likes a good hike, music, baseball.
Occupational therapy at Michigan State,
Provides her vocation at a future date.

Lots of luck on that flute
Ruth

Sylvia A. Bacon

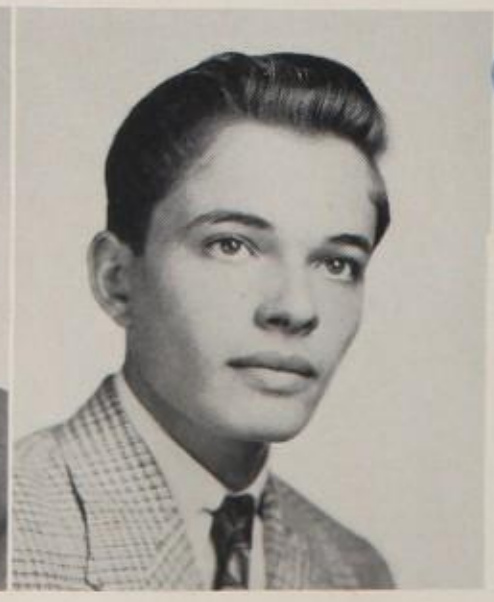
Though horses are her weakness
Swing records interest "Syl".
She yearns to be a real success,
Make it? Sure she will.

Floanne Balsley

California born, Texas bred,
"Tex" a gal, cute and well read,
Makes odd jewelry — wants to fly,
With that smile, she'll get by.

Hugh Barnes

Tennis and football are his games
When he's not busy with the dames;
If his future makes him a gob,
That for him will be some job.



Good Luck Marge
Keep up the good work
Jerry

Jeremy Barnes

A winning personality,
Lots of brains . . . vitality;
Navy or college ahead for Jerry
Girls? He likes 'em . . . very, very!

Franklin C. Barry

Stamps, books, music are hobbies for him.
Weakness is girls, Navy the same,
Chemical engineering his primary aim.

Adele Basch

Merchandising's the future for "Dell,"
Dancing and record collections are swell,
Likes rhumba music and eyes of green,
Plus a post war world that's tres serene.

Marilyn Beal

"Ma" will work on a newspaper staff,
That's always been her aim;
She writes short stories and loves to laugh,
Baseball's her favorite game.

Evelyn Beaumont

Evie with charm fairly radiates,
Week-end pleasures for work compensates;
As her future occupation,
This happy gal will take dictation.

Elaine A. Becker

Chow mein and music . . . her delight,
Sense of humor on the beam;
She's "Becky" . . . clever, blond and bright,
A warless world her dream.

Eréne P. Bein

Licorice candy — skating — sewing,
Things which keep Erene going;
She'd like to be a great M.D.
Conceited people she can't see.

Alice Marilyn Bolinder

Poise and beauty, genuine blond,
Of sewing and candy, Alice is fond.
Future secretary, sloppiness her peeve,
Piloting a plane the desire up her sleeve.

Barbara June Blackledge

Dreamy-eyed . . . with beauteous hair,
Intriguing accent, sweet, low, voice.
High ideals, always fair,
Lab assisting, future choice.

George Harold Bonnington, Jr.

"The Owl" wants to be a vet
He'll be a great one, you can bet;
Likes to garden, and to eat,
He's one guy who can't be beat.

Richard N. Bolles

Dick's future will be scientific
But in which field he's not specific;
Likes photography, stamps and movies when good,
Go for all sports? He certainly could.

Gerard Bowker

Get your putter, bring your mashie
For here's a golfing champ that's flashy.
Can't stand homework, sports he exalts.
It'll be the Navy, to join the salts.

Dorothy H. Brackett

A light-blue car would suit her fine,
Van Johnson would do the same;
She doesn't have much leisure time,
But tennis is her game.

Edgar Brandt

"Take me out to the ball game"
Could well be "Lefty's" theme,
Movies come second to all sports
With college his future dream.

Gertrude V. Brarman

Football, baseball, basketball,
Intrigue her, that's "Gertie's" report.
In the cadet nurse corps she'll make her mark,
This all around good sport.

Rose Marie Brarman

The ferry command or nurse corps for "Ro"
Her main ambition's to fly.
Dimpled, sport loving, plays a guitar,
But her weakness is Tom — a G.I.

Leigh Breuer

Smiling, friendly, lots of charm—
Much more pep than a double alarm;
Spends too much money . . . a drawback today,
As professional buyer she'll spend and take pay.

Daniel Braun

Women are his weakness,
His brother's his inspiration;
He wants to join the Marines,
And he has our admiration.

Claire Breitenstein

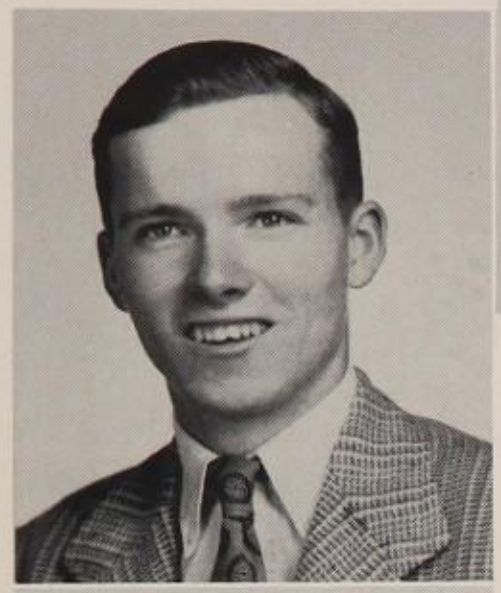
A musical gal is our Claire,
With a singing voice beyond compare;
Likes to read and bike-ride,
Personality on the cheerful side.

William P. Brockmeier

Always smiling, is curley-haired "Brock,"
Gets into everything up to his ears;
Records and pin-ups, comprise his hobbies,
With his talent, art is the best of careers.

Frank Brielmaier

Sports, sports are all he'll say,
From a baseball game to mild croquet;
Doesn't like homework — kinda shy,
But his 3rd sacker feats we'll remember him by.



Stanley J. Buchanan

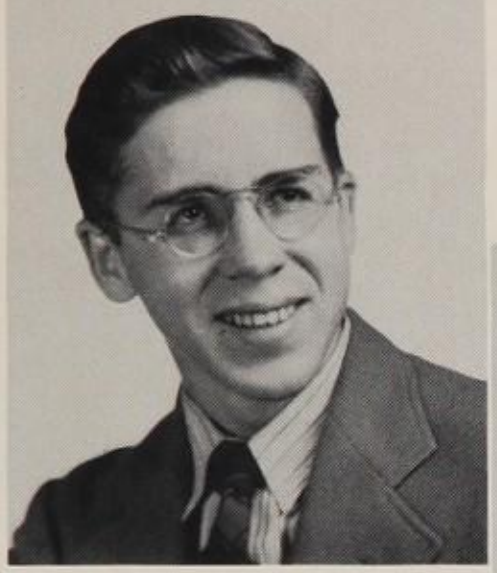
Favorite sport is basketball,
But likes hunting best of all;
Engineering school in store,
To success Stan will soar.

Ann D. Burby

Ann, a native of Chicago, Ill.
Delving into Journalism till
Her plans for college at last come true,
When she enters the portals of Northwestern U.

Dorothy Mae Bruce

To dance to the music of Harry James
Is something Dottie loves to do.
She tries to be happy all the day.
We think that she succeeds, don't you?



William A. Bukowski

Tho' Bill claims to be lazy
His future's not hazy—
Dentist, draftsman — along one of these lines,
While at sports this lad also shines.

Valentine Burger Jr.

"Butch" is our name for Valentine,
Stamps—war maps his list adorn;
Admittedly he loves to dine,
Abhors arising in the morn.

Marianne R. Burger

Quiet Marianne, liked Rebecca,
Takes her music via Decca;
A "naughty brat" her pleasure mars,
Enjoys ice-skating and chocolate bars.

Doris A. Burnett

Will bookkeep when school days are done,
Collecting photographs—plenty of fun,
Likes Ronald Reagan and ice cream
Dory's really on the beam.

Harold L. Busching

A job to be done, a war to be won?
Beckon "Hal" and he's on the run.
In biology, zoology, you may be at a loss,
But to hard-hitting Hal, they're so much apple sauce!

Virginia S. Byrkit

Ginny can't stand insincerity;
Mystery tales are her prize.
Likes swimming and tennis and movies to see,
Thoughtful girl—beautiful eyes.

Barbara E. Byrne

Vivacious Bar, attractive smile,
Horse-back riding suits her style;
On to college for a while,
As for friends, she has a pile!

Lois Carlsen

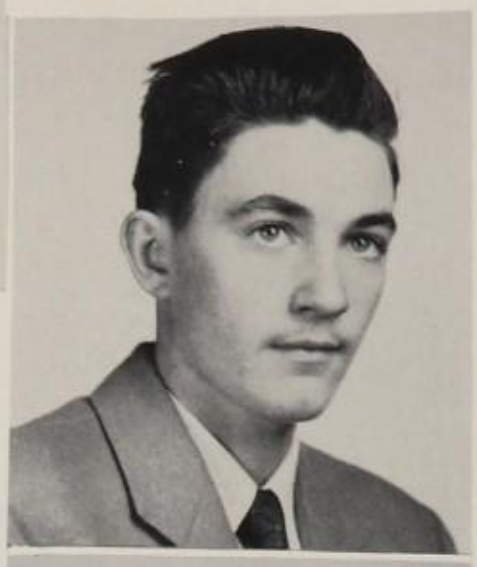
Another recruit . . . the Cadet Nurse Corps,
Dreams of reaching Hawaii's shore;
Thoughtful, literary Lo,
Vice? Late sleeping . . . she loves it though!

John William Cahill

A sport fiend any way you look,
Fixing cars—he's usually found;
Comics are his favorite book,
With wrestling, golf and soccer he gets around.

Joseph Cavaliere

Mechanical ability an asset with Joe,
Athletic, good student kids like to know.
Collection of pigeons dissolves liesure time,
Auto-mechanics to him, joy sublime.



Joan Castello

Dancing, sundaes, and Harry James
Are tops with Joanie Castello;
Cheerleading dame, life of the game,
Just ask any Football Fellow!

Emmy Lou Chattle

"Em" can cook a delicious meal,
She likes to eat ice cream;
She's what you call "a friend who's real."
In her spare time she'll dream.

William Chalmers

All the way from Denver, Willie's here to stay,
For leisure time he likes a movie or a play;
Has a basement lab, will be an engineer,
Unless Naval Air Corps takes over his career.

Alfred Cicoria

Thoughtful Freddie—lots of wit,
Future plans indefinite.
Swimming makes the greatest hit,
Sloppy girls he says, should quit!

Robert Civil

For Bob after college, extensive travels,
Pet peeve is brother—good moods unravels.
In answer to query says, "What leisure time?"
Building and camping-joys sublime.

Marie H. Clode

Red-haired "Clodey" wants to go to Cornell
And excel in Commercial Art.
She sure can draw as we know full well,
And we wish her a wonderful start.

Robert H. Cohen

Mystery novels send him,
Claims even-tempered Bob;
His will to work will lend him
To an agricultural job.

Jacqueline Colgan

Jackie has fun but complains of big feet,
Males that show off she'd like to beat.
Intriguing dark eyes, always well dressed,
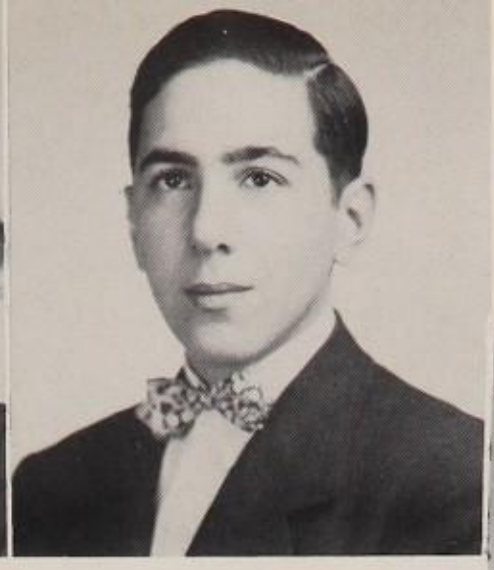
Gum, food, dancing some things
she likes best.

T. Millicent Commons

Quiet blond who likes to swim,
Hates to be called Milly;
Motorcycles catch her whim,
Art—her spare time filling.



Gerald R. Conoscenti

Jerry dislikes the typical "Rah,"
Dancing rates an audible "Ah."
Electricity his main interest ahead,
Medical books—best kind he's read.

Jeanette E. Cook

She idolizes the Navy,
As a cadet nurse she'll do well;
Loves movies, cokes and candy,
"Cookie" is friendly and swell.

Ralph Patak Cornell

"Baron" . . . that lovable red-headed guy,
On to college where he'll do or die.
Weakness a beautiful feminine physique,
Likes weightlifting, a hobby unique.

Jane E. Costello

Janie—few as cute or friendly as she,
Preferred book the Hi-Way—of course we agree.
We know she'll be the perfect teacher,
Since homework she does not feature.

Donald Cowell

Dairy farming is close to "Cow's" heart,
Making boats is another art;
He sticks to his job, frowns on girls driving.
At some infantry camp he'll soon be arriving.

Barbara Alyce Cruthers

Quiet charm is Bobbie's grace,
Wants a lovely home and horses.
Landscape designing her future plan,
Vacations she firmly endorses.

Richard Court

All of Dick's interests are up in the air,
Likes his girls with dark eyes and long hair;
Jealousy peeves him, his eyes draw a sigh.
As a Marine flyer, we know he'll get by.

Nancy Criscione

The "eyes" have it, looking at Chris,
Loves to dance, this peppy Miss;
Office working is her plan;
Eighth period the only thing she'd ban.

Raymond F. Curiel

Baseball's the favorite sport of "Ray,"
Who'll join the Merchant Marine some day;
And after that, do ya wanna bet?
He'll go places on the clarinet!

Charles P. Daly

A quiet handsome fellow is he,
Wants to get a Doctor's degree;
Likes brass bands—hunting—shooting,
Charlie's one for whom we're rooting.

John P. Daly

John would like to study law,
Helping labor is his aim;
All sports his attention draw,
But soccer is his favorite game.

Warren R. Damis

Football, baseball, basketball,
Warren likes them one and all;
Sports he likes above all things,
His future to the gods he flings.

John W. Dayton, Jr.

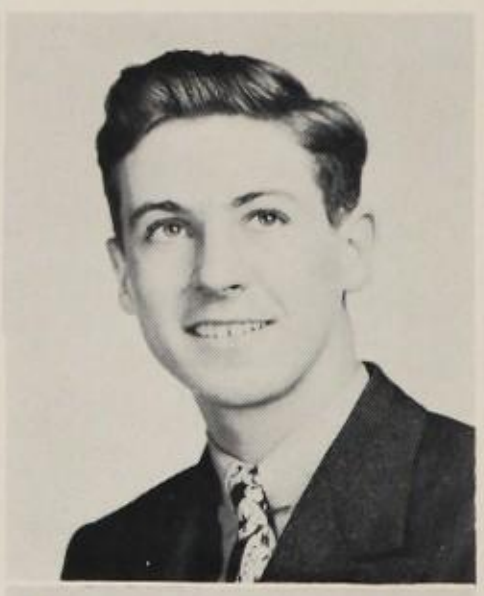
Whenever there's talking you know Johnnie's here,
Expounding his theories to friends who are near.
Likes dancing, good music, writing for career;
Pet peeve is anyone who's insincere.

Jack Daniels

First off to win the war,
Then in college will study more.
Likes ice hockey—gets along with all,
Boy, can Jock'o play football!

Charles M. Deblon

Count on Charlie for lots of fun,
He brings a smile to everyone;
Mountain music really sends him;
Broken cars—he sure can mend them.



John W. DeBaun

Johnny, who started in Fairfield,
Wants to spend the rest on an airfield;
Enjoys building models and skating,
But flying still gets top rating.

Isabel De Luca

You know her by her super voice,
And smiling face—that's Issie;
Listening to records of her choice
And dancing, keeps her busy.

Marion De Jacomo

Very cute—lots of fun.
College—when high school is done;
Likes eating and sleeping but not to wait
For those people always late.

Irene Di Costanzo

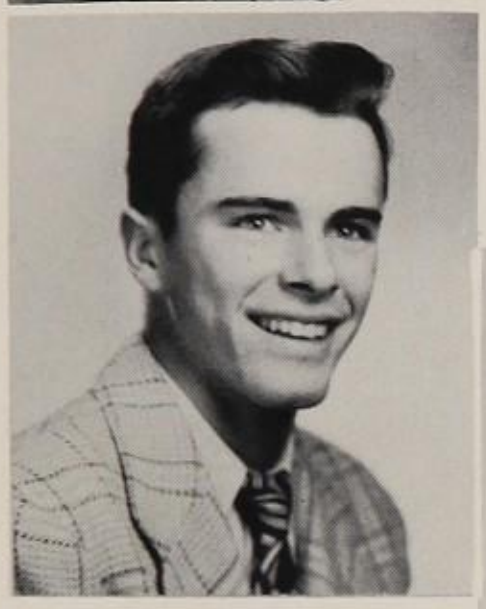
Says she has no leisure time.
Skating and football are joys sublime;
Attractive, blond and rather tall,
Irene plans on college next fall.

Leland S. Dennegar

Wise cracking Lee with the "scared hair,"
Is headed for the Army Air Corps;
Of bowling and debating he'll take a share,
As for Varga—give him more!

Floyd Drake

Curly hair, big tease—
Food and music easily please—
Collects hot records what really am—
Will study medicine with "Uncle Sam."



Joseph T. Di Matteo

Well-known as president of the Hi-Y,
With his charming manner, will always get by;
Favorite hobby is airplanes, Joe reports;
Will be engineer, likes all kinds of sports.

Marie Agnes Dunlap

Wants to be a doctor's assistant.
Who? Our laughing "Sissy"!
Her hobby is writing stories,
This gay and carefree missy.

Patricia Driscoll

Veterinarian's position she hopes to achieve,
Conceited men provide Pat's pet peeve;
Fun loving gal, with a grand disposition,
Dancing and riding her favorite traditions.

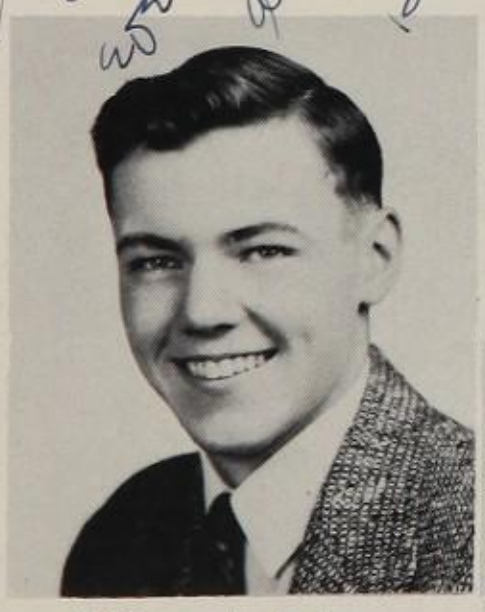
Love



William G. Eads

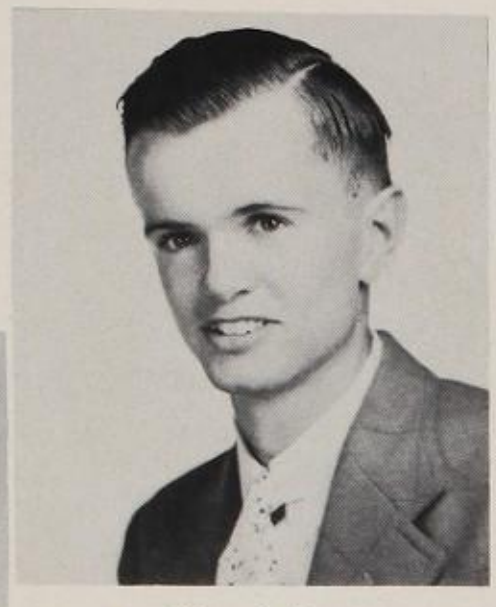
Track-man, class president, Hi-Y, actor too.
Outside of that he has nothing to do;
Whiz of a dancer, this well known young man,
Wants college or Navy, or both if he can.

Nancy Patricia Earl

Humorous Nan—
Collects mail by the score
From a good-looking guy
In the medical corps.

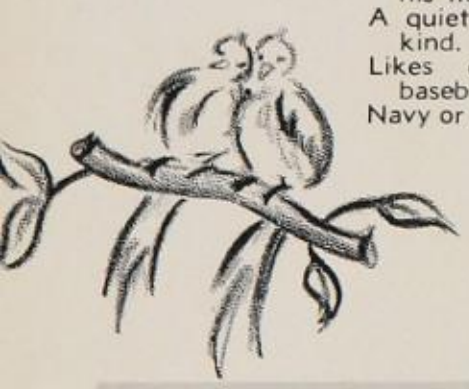
Ronald Emmons

Ronald will go careering
In law or engineering;
Lots of knowledge, and toward college
You will find him steering.



Edward Emmer

Ed wants to be an engineer,
He's interested in chess;
Likes ping-pong, stamps and Chemistry,
He'll be a great success.



Joan Christine Engel

Sunny disposition, clothes that click,
Riding and dancing, she takes her pick;
Interior decorating is her plan,
And to find a tall, blonde, handsome man.

Frances Engel

Headed for college to get her knowledge,
"Toodo" is a fiend for mystery stories;
Moocher's peeve her, tall blondes please her;
In knitting and swimming, she glories.

Doris M. Erskine

Cute and dark, not so bold,
Sinatra swooners leave her cold;
A secretary she hopes to be,
But she does all right in C.A.P.

William Ennis

Elusive Bill . . . you can't read his mind,
A quiet smile . . . the winning kind.
Likes eating, swimming and baseball,
Navy or Air Corps is his first call.

Rina B. Fantoni

Mischievous and full of fun,
Just likeable, that's Rina;
Laughing, always on the run,
Drawing couldn't be keener.

Jean Evans

Jeannie likes expensive clothes,
She loves to read good books,
We hope that she will always feel,
As snappy as she looks.

Fern Farnham

Fern is our pretty Rochester gal,
Biggest weakness—a fellow named Al;
Business school her future includes,
Scrapbooks and music suit her moods.

Dorothy M. Fay

Dottie joins the growing throng
Who will look for office work;
Reading and music ring the gong,
Her duty she'll not shirk.

Joan Fay

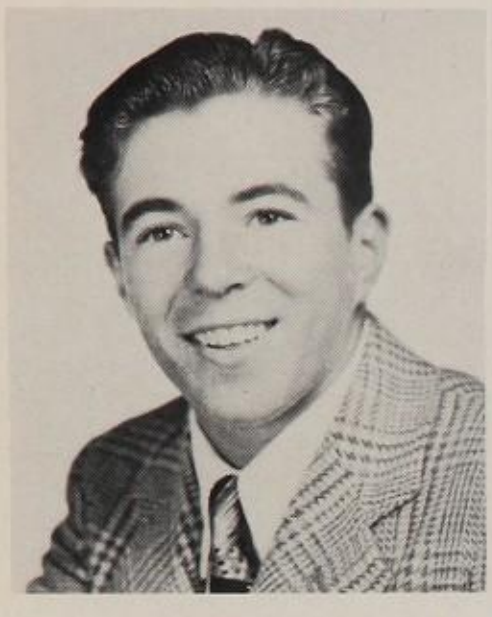
Movies and football are her choice,
"Fay's" a true fan of the Voice.
A secretary she aspires to be,
Admits her weakness is jealousy.

Dorothy Fess

Her future's in nursing,
Of sports can't get her fill;
Our swell, dimpled Dot
Has a weakness for Bill.

Herman J. Fess

"Herm" likes movies, "Herm" will fish,
Successful hunting — one swell dish;
A movie-goer, weakness dames,
Planned for college, but the service claims.



Joy Ellen Fields

Lots of spark—likes shoes.
Sensible—upholds her views;
"Jef"—the gal with blue-black hair,
Actress—bright—she makes you stare.

Dorothy Marie Foster

Dottie's "saving herself for Bill,"
All the rahs she'd like to kill.
Will be a bookkeeper some day,
Loves to bowl, dance, and be gay.

Ruthann Fox

"Candy" likes to drive a car,
She loves to swim and dance;
But she prefers to watch, by far,
Blond Betty Hutton prance.

Carl Freund

The women choosing hats
Are things which drive Carl bats.
On building model planes and boats
Or riding and radio listening he does.

Sybille Frick

Friendly "Sybie" always sincere,
Favorite hobby is dancing ballet;
Conceited folk she rates to the rear,
Will go to college, if she has her way.

Claire Ganz

Attractively tall—a description of Claire,
Patience her virtue, drawing her flair;
Pet peeve is people who refuse to wait;
Commercial art—her future fate.

Florence Gehlbach

Flo's laughter through the air does ring,
Loves to hear Bing Crosby sing;
Swing and drawing with her rate,
Calls worst school period, number eight.

Beverly Jane Georgia

Bev likes a football game,
As a secretary she'll rise to fame;
Collects china dogs with great zeal,
Hasn't as yet met her ideal.

Jeanne G. Gaston

College ahead for Jeanne G.
Has a grand sense of humor we've found;
Pleasing to her are dancing and sports,
But mainly "just kidding around."

Catherine Giles

Our Kay is a musical gal,
Charming and friendly, she's everyone's pal;
We all know how she loves her cake,
A success of her life in college she'll make.

Richard Gilliland

Natural Dick is an outdoor man,
With spare time and interest sunk in his car;
Hunting and wrestling make him a sports fan,
Agriculture will be his professional star.

Harold J. Gilsdorf

Always good-natured, cheerful is Jack,
Scientifically studious too.
Building radios, he has a knack,
Electrical engineering is what he will do.

Alice Jane Gilsinan

"Allie" Teaneck born and bred
Lovely, artistic, and well read;
Secretary she'll be, hypocrites she loathes,
Letters she writes, loves pretty clothes.

Gloria M. Girardon

She likes to go for a lengthy walk,
About anything she can always talk;
"Mimi's" weakness is cute boys,
A peppy gal with plenty of poise.

Jean Goldammer

Jeanie—a charming lively gal,
To be a model does desire;
Obviously everybody's pal,
Her foreign dolls we all admire.

Mildred Goldminz

"Milly" the debater,
Her college . . . N.Y.U.;
Dancing and Hal elate her,
Her character . . . true blue.

M. Patricia Goodwin

Stars in her eyes, a whimsical expression;
Crazy about purple, her only confession;
Likes food and books, any musical session;
Interior decorating will be her profession.

Irene Golden

Popular "I" always loves to dance,
At "dishing out homework" she looks askance;
To be a secretary is her future plan,
Give her anytime, a real Navy man.

Dorothy Gollin

Dancing pleases Dotty lots,
But cowboys irritate her;
She's skilled in art—just loves to draw,
For that we can't berate her.

Dick's life around radio revolves,
Making it his career is what he resolves;
Likes to drive when he has the gas,
Girls who smoke, his test won't pass.

Gerald Gould

"Gerry" born in old New York,
That French lingo can really talk;
In spare time builds model planes,
When building these he takes great pains.

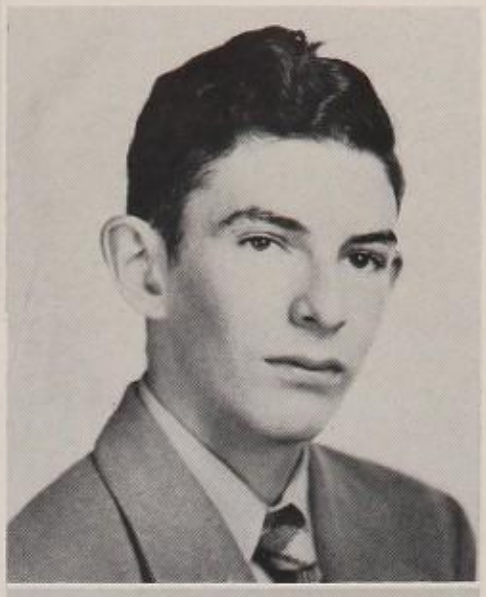
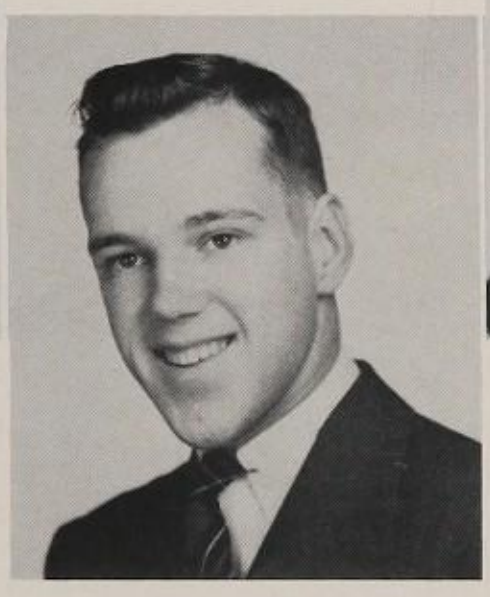
Daniel Gross

This future "Doc."
Whom Dodger fans vex,
Likes banana splits
And the fairer sex.



Esther G. Griffiths

From Penn hails Esther,
She likes the Marines;
Secretarial work—
Her future means.



Charles Gunner

"Chuck," our plunging back with fleet feet,
Always happy, loves to eat;
For every sport he has a flair,
A swell guy, whose hair just ain't there!

Margery Gross

Peppy Midge with friendly grin
Will be a dietician, home's comforts her treat;
Love of jewelry her only sin,
Likes movies, swimming—but not conceit.

Dolores Anita Guyon

Wants to go to college in Cal.
Loves clothes and records—has many a pal.
On conceited people "Dee" says
nix.
Pretty, blond—with everyone clicks.

Owen Hamill

His good natured humor known to us all,
Owen likes animals, soccer,
baseball;
Loves the thought of graduation
this year,
In June for the Navy he plans to steer.

Albert Hanak

Al's headed for the Navy
Likes ice-cream sodas sloppy.
A first-class hunter, likes to ride
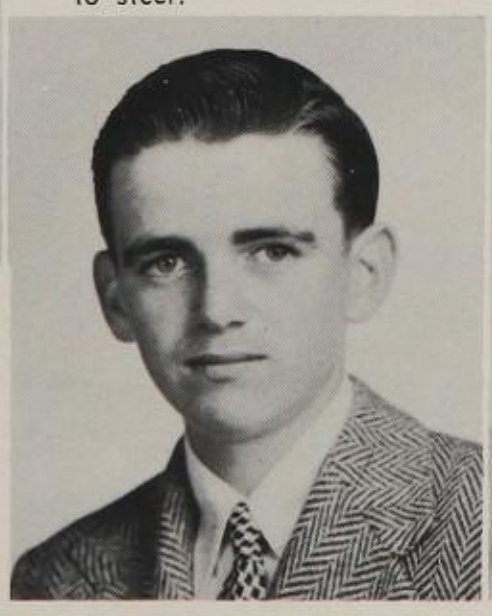
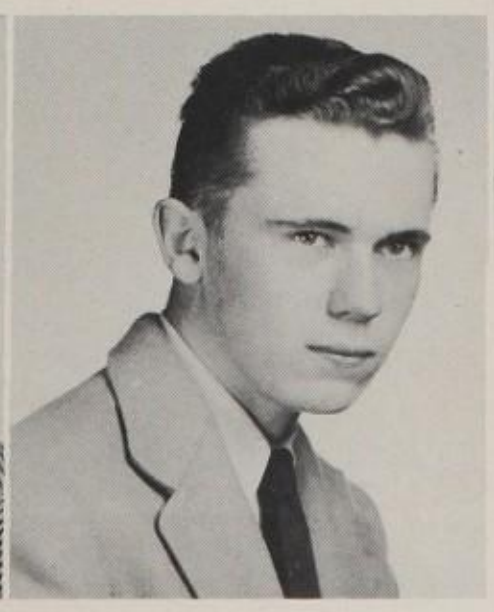
In his well-famed jallopy.





Shirley Elaine Harris

Shirley looks forward to Ohio State,
Tennis and swimming with her do rate.
A merchandiser she's going to be,
World peace she would like to see.

Geraldyn Haskins

Gossipers gripe Gerry you can bet,
Sense of humor—best asset;
Journalism to her has the greatest appeal,
Dot Kilgallen, her ideal.

Arthur Hartwick

Future plans hut-2-3-4-
Red-hot music Art does adore;
His way with the drums, far above par;
Thinks his best asset, his brother's car.

Lots of luck and best wishes.
Art.

Barbara J. Haupt

Bobbie enjoys a shopping spree,
A cadet nurse she plans to be;
White teeth—lovely hair,
All the things which make you stare.

David R. Heebner

Be it cars, or clubs, or girls,
Action is the term for Dave;
On to college after war,
"Butts" and rifles—he'll always crave.

Jean Marie Haule

Jean's sense of humor is a joy to hear,
Her grand personality's something to cheer;
Indulges in riding and swimming too,
Thinks having a good time is the thing to do.

Alice Heffernan

"Hef's" an avid autograph hound,
To learn steno she is bound;
She loves Sinatra and to roller skate
Her wit for miles around does rate.

Beatrice Heinemann

Dark hair, dark eyes, loves to ski,
A lady with plans is efficient Bea;
Knitting and swimming she does with ease,
Artist or beautician: she'll be one of these.

Arthur Hendrickson

The president of the "Jug" is Art,
He gave the "rec" its early start.
Engineering is his call,
But girls and radios top them all.

Isabel Joyce Henry

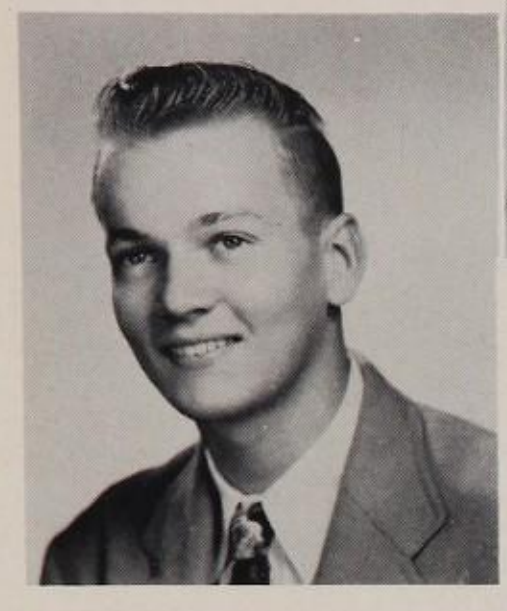
A college girl "Skip" plans to be,
She's known for her writing ability;
She golfs and rides with great zeal,
A free world . . . her ideal.

Edith Hinman

As business manager Edie shows skill,
For q u i e t capability, patience and good will.
As a graduate she'll find success
Continuing in the field of business.

Donald Hoeting

Eating and sleeping a pleasure for Dutch,
A smile that gets 'em—very much—
Great football player, handsome and blond,
To the Air Corp's call he'll soon respond.



Berenice E. Hossfield

Interior decoration is her aim,
Bunnie's height has won her fame.
She skates and dances with great zeal,
Boy friend Bob is her ideal.

Gloria Hotmer

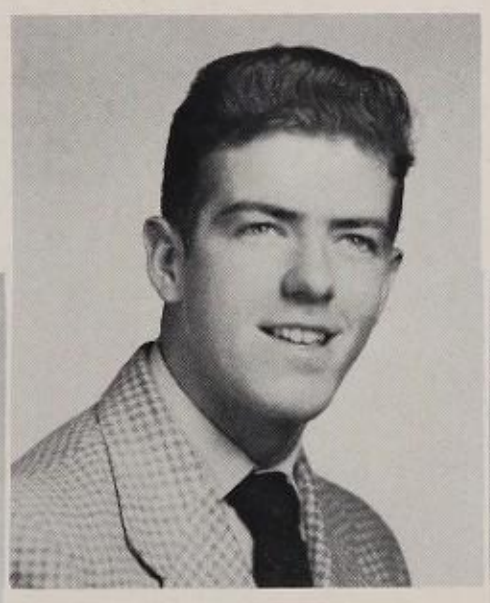
Adult manner, sparkling smile.
"Queenie" plays in skillful style.
Dislikes those who always preach.
After college wants to teach.

Rose Marie Huber

Rosemarie likes to draft and skate,
She dislikes girls who chase a mate.
Apples on sticks she does adore,
But likes repairing autos more.

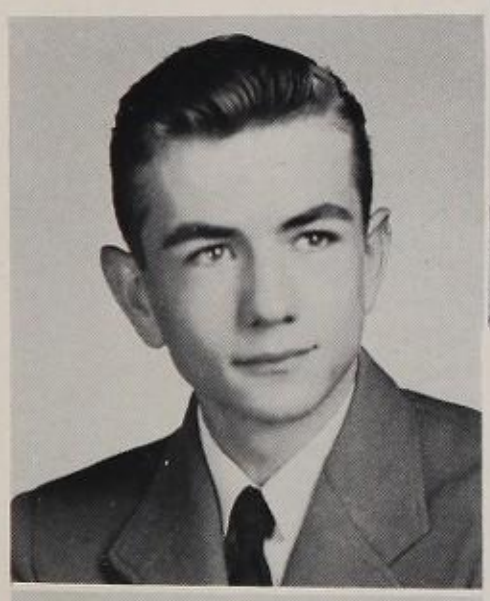
Robert Hurley

The Marines for "Ozzie"
Of our football squad,
Likes Notre Dame—sodas—
In approval we nod.



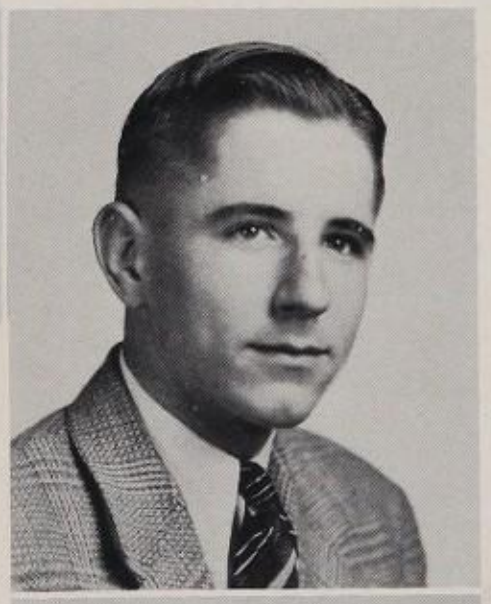
Joseph R. Jablon

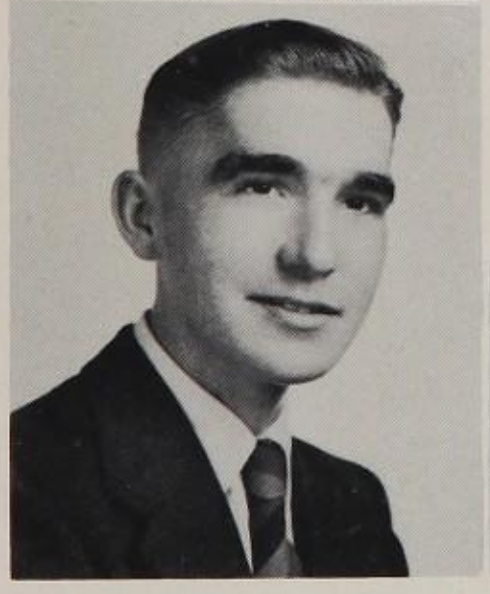
The Maritime Service for Joe,
A success, wherever he'll go;
Mystery novels have great appeal,
Engineering . . . his ideal.



Anthony Janicki

Happy-go-lucky lad is he,
One of our gobs, Tony'll be.
A drummer now with lots of pep,
A swing fiend, plenty hep.



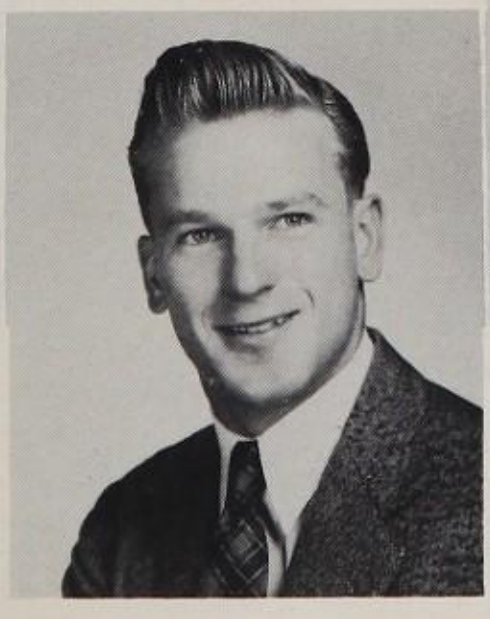


Donald Walter Jahrling

Swimming or buying a solid platter,
Are to Red the things that matter;
He hates to get up early Monday,
Hopes to join the Navy someday.

Hugh C. Johannessen

"Chris" . . . a lad who's always beaming,
Of being in the Air Corps he is dreaming;
Soccer or a wrestling meet,
Are his idea of a real treat.



Rodney Jeffrey

Navy bound—loves a car
Jeff's a lad who'll go far
Lots of friends, records, sports,
Can drink milk by the quarts.

Ingrid Johnson

Dancing, swimming, skiing, hiking,
These are all to "Johnny's" liking,
Lifeguards are this gals ideal,
Her pretty face makes others squeal.

Marie Jordan

Dancing is a favorite of Marie,
She's going to be a secretary.
Eats chocolate sodas with much vim.
She also likes to skate and swim.

Marilyn Johnson

College bound Lynn, quiet and sweet;
Fudge sundaes make for treat complete;
Dependability is her ringing theme,
An "A" in Chem is a far-off dream.

Patricia Jones

As a commercial artist Pat will go far,
Weakens at sight of convertible car;
Records collection is really tops,
Loves dancing from waltzes to Lindy hops.

Hugh Kane

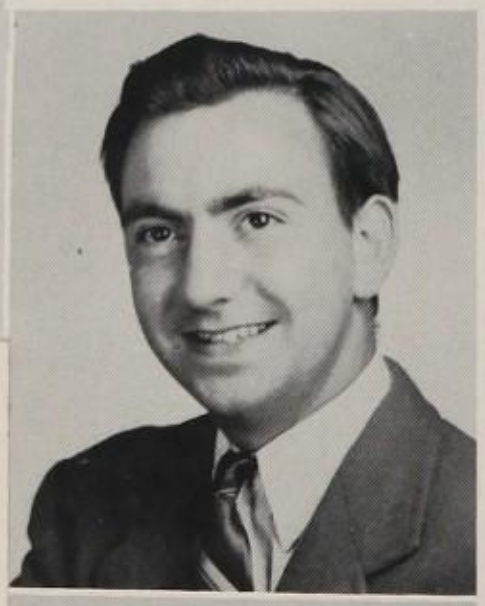
Hugh is a model plane builder,
He likes to go surf fishing;
He's a quiet lad in class,
To join the Navy he's wishing.

Daniel Keely

Happy-go-lucky Dan spends his "leisure" in school,
Engineering if he can, aeronautics his tool;
A smile that melts 'em, dancing zoot,
Favorite hobby is to shoot.

Louis Kelter

Deacon's future, the Marines,
True-adventures give him a thrill.
A great athlete—he loves his sports
Wants to travel the world, and will.



Edward John Kimmerle

Edward's going to win the war,
Wants to join the Army Air Corps;
Football, basketball, keep him trim,
Model plane building he does with vim.

Martin Kelly

Carefree Marty with laughter hearty,
Cog in Te-Hi's forward wall;
On snobs, thumbs down . . . he'll win renown,
Women provide his one pitfall.

Paul A. Ketchpel

Quiet sort, keeps it all in his mind,
But you see in his smile a heart truly kind.
Hunting the hobby he holds most dear,
Paul wants to be an engineer.

Margaret Kircher

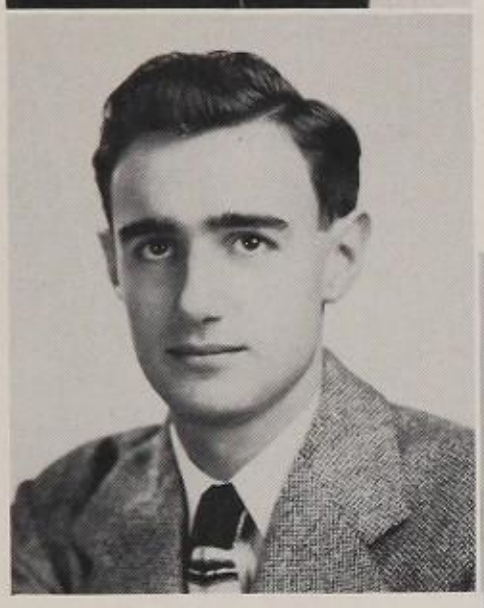
Food and convertibles,
Will get Marg's votes;
On parties and dancing,
This future nurse dotes.

Elsa Kohler

World-wide travel is "Pepsi's" aim,
Loves a good World Series game.
To be a nurse—she's made up her mind,
Leisure she spends in ice-skating you'll find.

Isabelle King

Conversation filled with zip,
Clever, witty, describe "Ip".
Varied talents, major art,
Successful future for her part.



Raymond Klein

Secret agent, F. B. I.
Ray's future occupation.
Likes building planes, ice cream, girls, sports,
Our G-Man of the nation.

Monroe Kolb

Likes to loaf, loves swimmin',
Admits his weakness is wimmin!
An industrial engineer Monty will be,
Just plain good times with him agree.

Audrey Charlotte Kohlreiter

"Aud" of the hair . . . dark and curly,
Likes dancing, parties, dismissal bells early.
Secretarial work, then designing,
Always in trouble, but never whining.

Mildred Krais

Midgie just loves a football game,
Her dimples have won her great acclaim;
Movies she frequently likes to see,
A secretary she plans to be.

Geraldine Lauzon

Dark flashing eyes that everyone knows,
Te-Hi News and football first claims on her heart.
First chance that comes—off to Europe she goes.
Career? Journalism! We've all seen her start.

Patricia Lawson

Lovely Pat is full of fun,
Known and liked by everyone;
Envied by all for the clothes she sews,
Medicine is the career she chose.

Gloria-Anne Leclercq

Likes to ice skate and swim,
These she does with great vim.
Tell us, what do we have here?
A future, feminine engineer.

OUR THOUGHTS

Nice to remember, but a lot of work just to get out of school.

DONALD W. MALONEY.

In fairest June,
My only tune
Will be one of sadness
Not gladnes
To Teaneck High
So long—g'bye.

DIANE LIMENFELD.

I'll be glad to get out, but I'll miss the kids in school. Right now I'm scared to death at the thought of being thrown out on my own.

NANCY EARL.

In from twenty-five to fifty steps, I'll be across the stage, have my diploma, and I'll be free!

BILL STAUDT.

I can't bear the thought of leaving my dear teachers and fellow students for the cold world outside.

PAUL VOLCKER.

Graduation will be just another unnecessary chore; a waste of time and money.

JOSEPH SANDERS.

I think graduation to me will mean both sadness and happiness, because I'm going to miss all the kids terrible, but I'll be happy to start a new life.

KATHLEEN REGAS.

To Graduation:

If you are but a dream,
I hope I never waken
It's more than I can bear
To find myself forsaken.

ANONYMOUS.

WE ASKED . . .

1. Is there anything that you think will insure world peace? If so, what?
2. What would you change about the last four years if you could live them over?
3. To what extent do you believe in fate?
4. What quality will you look for first in your husband or wife?

JACK MOLLOY

1. I don't think any world peace will be a lasting one.
2. My financial situation.
3. Only that I am master of it.
4. Sincerity.
5. Miss Haffner — sometimes she makes me believe everything she's saying. She's a very brilliant person and always way ahead of everyone.
6. End the war.
   A good job.
   Marriage.
7. I'd change some of the useless subjects to useful ones.
8. I have no idea, but I hope it will be where the days are warm and the nights cool, and I'm not doing anything strenuous.

PATRICIA ROTH

1. No.
2. Be more discreet about love affairs.
3. Everything that happens is concentrated toward some specific end, and this may be said to occur for the best.
4. Tolerance.
5. Miss Curran—we devoted many periods to philosophical discussion.
6. The end of the war today.
   To be a good writer.
7. Start high school in the seventh grade by accelerating the whole curriculum, so that students may graduate at 15 or 16.
8. Married, with a writing career, and a couple of children.

DICK COURT

1. A united federation of all world powers, governed by a central legislature.
2. I would put more effort into my studies and my homework. I'm sure my teachers would appreciate this.
3. I don't! You are the master of your destiny.
4. A comfortable shoulder supporting a beautiful cranium.
5. Mr. Becker. Why? His realism.
6. In Marine Corps.
   A's on final exams.
   Three more wishes.
7. I'd put in more industrial courses and fewer literary or unnecessary classes, as well as teaching subjects that would help with future occupations.
8. I hope I'll be in America. I'll probably be living in Jersey, and still looking for a woman.

ON PARTING!

O happy day, I'll graduate
And spend my life just sleeping late
But to my mind will often come,
Thoughts of High School and lots of fun.
RUTH TALBERT.

When roses bloom in early aummna
And 'Im a Teaneck High alumna,
Four hard years will slowly shrink
From a chain to just a link.
Maybe.
ELAINE BECKER

Can't wait! — JOSEPH DIMATTEO.

Picketing lunch lines, homework's blight,
Make graduation pure delight:
But after three years, I've reached the point
Where I kinds hate to leave the joint.
MARGERY QUITZAU.

Is it possible?
VIRGINIA SCHERZINGER.

I can say now that I can't wait to leave T. H. S., but wait until you see me graduation night—I'll have the biggest box of Kleenex, and the largest bottle of aspirin.
THOMASINE THIEL.

I'll not cry, nor weep, nor faint;
I'm a hard-hearted gal—you bet I ain't!
JOAN LEVINE.

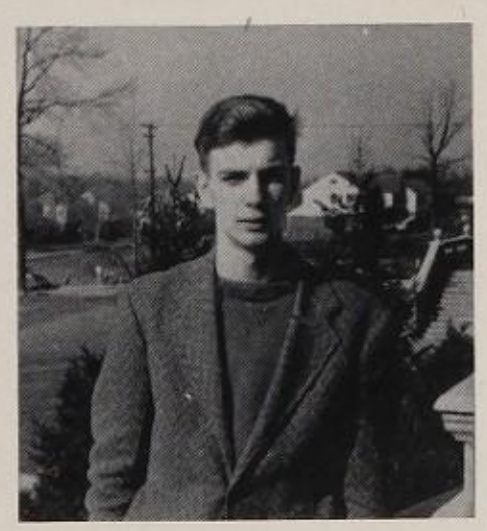
These things which I am to relate
Are my thoughts when at last I graduate
In eighth periods a horrible time I've had
And because of these things I've almost gone mad
But I know I'll be a very proud guy
When I finally graduate from Teaneck High.
RICHARD WERNER.

5. Which teacher has made the most lasting impression upon you, and why?
6. If you were granted three wishes, what would they be?
7. If you had your way, what would you change about the American system of high school education?
8. Where and what do you think you'll be ten years from now?

THEY ANSWERED

JEAN STRANG

1. Miss Haffner.
2. Rationing—food and gas. P. S. also gas. The hours for school and exams.
3. To the end of the world (if you can trust my word!!!)
4. Looks—isn't that enough, especially these days?
5. Mr. Andrews—"Can you top this?" (You know his jokes). P. S. also grades.
6. To have a final exam over.
   To have a daily party in every class.
   All the boys I wanted.
7. Homework and study halls.
8. A devoted housewife! I'll bet you thought differently.



PAUL VOLCKER

1. No.
2. Stop growing four years ago.
3. Not much, except in basketball. It's just fate when one of Ozzie Hurley's shots goes in.
4. After your husband or wife IS your husband or wife, it's too late to start looking for qualities.
5. Miss Curran. She's the only teacher that I can stand up and talk to.
6. Nobody ever asked to have questionaires filled out.
   Four less inches.
   I could get more than ten points in some basketball game.
7. More leisure time.
8. Taking calculus from Mr. Becker.

BARBARA BLACKLEDGE

1. A world court and council, composed of all nations.
2. I would have worked a little harder on geometry and on a certain boy.
3. To the extent that tomorrow will follow today.
4. That he doesn't wear suspenders, but does smoke a pipe, Wow.
5. Miss Haffner. I will never forget her, because she can slap you down and pick you up with an art all her own.
6. A peace organization for the rest of eternity! Find a place where Negroes could be happy. Rid this world of all jealousies and mental obstacle to cooperation.
7. More Miss Haffner's, but less good-looking, as it's distracting to the Maloneys of the world.
8. An old widow with a huge fortune.

Albert A. Lelkendy

Nickname "Oop", new this year,
Good-natured, friendly, soon at home.
Navy diving his career;
Favorite pastime—sail the foam.

Kenneth B. Leeman

Charming Red of the enviable hair,
Popular usher with Friday night pairs.
Admires his parents beyond all compare,
Intends to go in for accounting affairs.

Helen A. Leumann

Likes to horseback ride and bowl,
Conceited people leave her cold.
Blond and dimpled, "Lou" is slim,
Hot fudge sundaes keep her trim.

Elizabeth Letsche

Gal with a future in musical ability,
Sketching and dancing add versatility;
If you want to please, don't call her "Lizzy"—
Any blond sailor can make her dizzy.

Robert Lewis

Writing briefs . . . presenting cases,
"Lawyer Bob" the bar soon faces;
His car, if running, perfect bliss—
He's one whom Teaneck High will miss.

Joan Ruth Levine

She writes like Steinbeck, acts in plays,
Report card reads . . . cold, straight "A"'s.
Will go to college, detests a phony—
Our sparkling, endlessly talking Joanie.

John Licata

Aeronautical engineering suits "Bash".
Thinks blondes with blue eyes have "dash".
This lad who hails from North Bergen,
Says his pet peeve is other men.

Diane Joyce Limenfeld

A future "Doc" is lovely Di,
Likes jive and classics interchangeably.
Persevering, pretty, bright,
Has many friends, and a smile of delight.

Thelma Loew

Good jokes, dancing, skiing for Thel,
Plays the piano—does it well.
Hopes to make nursing her career,
Weakness is shoes it does appear.

Dolores Lowe

A business career for "Dee",
She dances and sings with glee.
Likes meeting new people, fiction and clothes,
But to gum chewers she turns up her nose.

James Lyons

"Chicken-head"—happy, full of fun;
Got that name from his rooster-necked run.
In sports he's done Old Te-Hi proud,
Success it'll be—long and loud!

Elmer Mabie

Leaves his future to the draft,
Likes sleeping and a good swim.
Wood chopping-cutting it in half,
And a big fish catch are pleasing to him.

Virginia Macarone

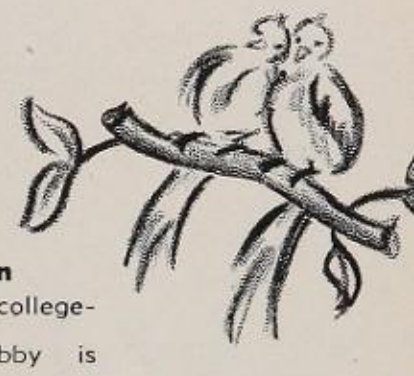
Ginny's hobby is writing letters,
"A Tree Grows in Brooklyn" her book;
"Tall dark and handsome" her ideal,
Conceited people don't rate her look.

Janet MacGregor

Dancing and letter-writing consume Jan's time,
With football games thrown in too;
Ronald Reagan's her dream sublime,
Although a Marine will do.

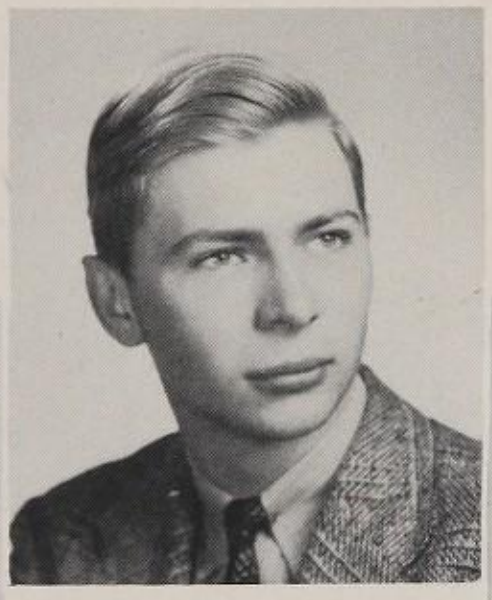
Gordon MacKillop

Big and blond, loves to drive,
For the Army Air Corps "Mac" will strive;
Hobby is photographic work,
Over girls and music he will perk.



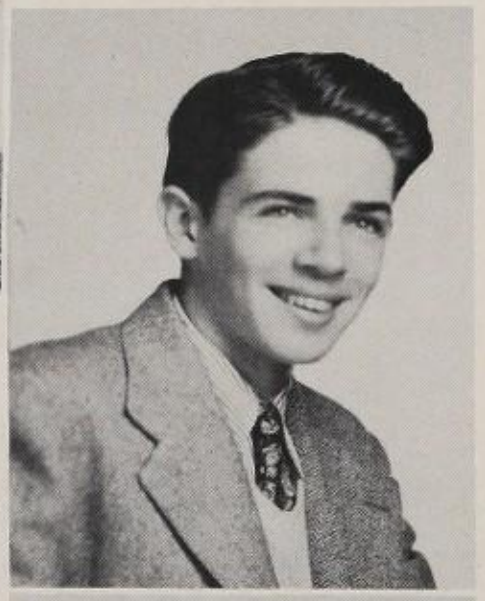
Dorothy Madden

Diminutive "peanuts" loves to dance.
On teachers' pets she looks askance,
Plans a trip to the Emerald Isle,
Characterized by her mischievous smile.



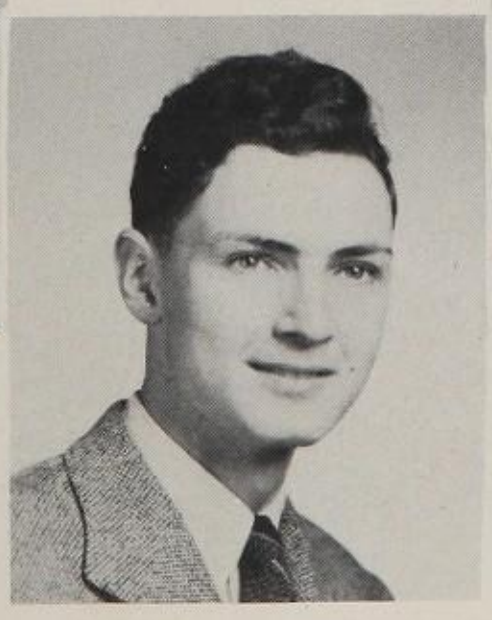
John L. Magnan

Another guy that's college-bound,
In Politics Jock's hobby is found;
Cash? Before 40 he'll have his lot,
People who step on his feet shall be shot!



Donald Wren Maloney

Don the musician, Don the poet,
Outstanding guy who just doesn't know it.
Knows about everything, stays pretty quiet,
But his rare remarks are always a riot.



Florence Madden

Will operate a telephone,
When her school days are done;
To Flossy, spaghetti and meatballs,
And riding in cars, mean fun.

Donald J. Maloney

Hair on fire, reads Esquire,
At railroads, and with he's ommiscient;
Work in P. A. D. brings lugubrity,
On our Hi-Way staff he's efficient.

Doris Maloney

Just call Maloney if you want to laugh,
She loves to dance, but that's not half.
Also eating, swimming, and jokes by the score.
Her smile would open any door!

Janet Maltbie

Short and friendly — swell to know,
Likes food and clothes on which to sew.
Intends to go to a junior college,
And later, through travel will add to her knowledge.

Allan Martin

Basketball fan, Navy man,
His old "Model A" is desertible;
To loaf and eat is joy complete
But he'd like a sharp convertible.

Shirley Marcus

Shirley likes to watch the games,
Thinks horseback riding is grand;
Going to college is one of her aims,
Has plenty of wit at hand.

Joseph Markey

"Dog lover Joe" with his close cropped hair,
Enjoys playing football and swimming;
He hopes to be an engineer,
With honesty he's brimming.

Patricia Anne Marvelle

Don't call her Patsy, make it Pat.
Spending money keeps her flat,
Photography and mysteries, to the fore!
Another addition to Cadet Nurse Corps.

Joyce Marie Mathis

"Joy" will get rich and have her fun,
Buying a car and clothes by the ton;
She leans to Marines and Johnny Mercer,
Conceited people? What could be worser!

Betty McCurrach

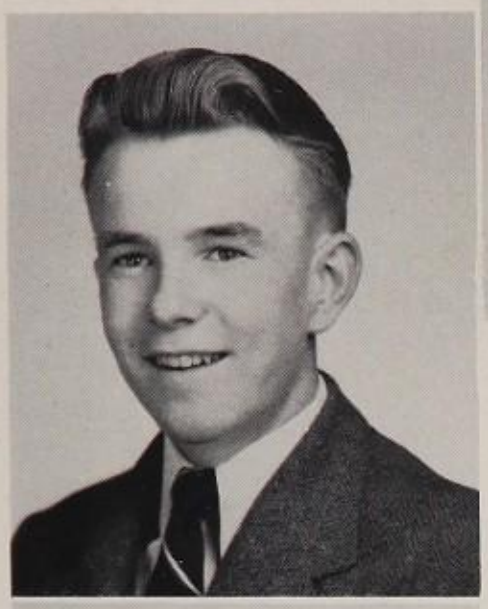
Musical shows are "Red's" delight,
Plus those ten nails that she can bite;
A secretary she will be,
At that a great success—you'll see!

Cardinal Masters

Happy-go-lucky, listens to swing,
"Mac" gives dancing, too, a fling.
His way with the girls is known wide and far,
As a lawyer he'll stand before the bar.

Richard Mayer

Dick claims his asset is half of a boat.
We'd like to know if he thinks it will float?
Likes skating, joins Navy or Merchant Marines,
That he takes to water is easily seen.



Warren McDermott

"Mac's life centers around his car,
Likes candy and ice cream too.
Ideal is to go to Notre Dame,
And drafting when the war is through.

Graham McCutcheon

By eating and sleeping, "Mac" will be reaping
(He hopes) some wrestling fame;
Girls he mocks, without their socks;
The Air Corps has his name.

Jeanne Marie McGrath

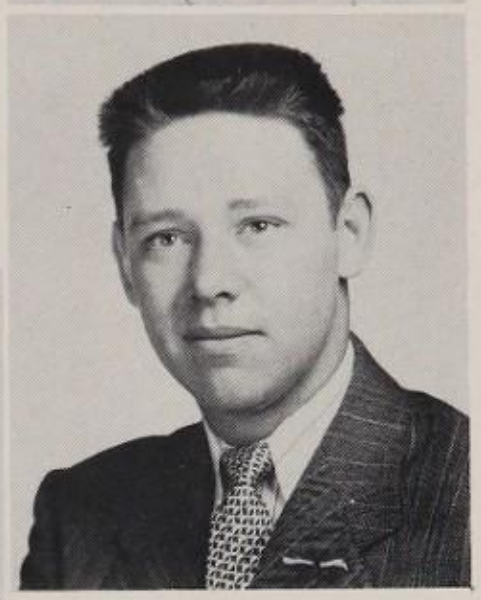
Jeanne is a tall well-dressed miss,
Who'll be a nurse in blue;
Her heart belongs to a guy named Cris,
But Crosby rates with her too.

Martha G. McGimpsey

"Marty's" brother is her ideal,
A yellow convertible, a treat that's real;
Listens to records, dances, sews,
Many friends, has no foes.

Donald Mellen

Plays the sax in Jack Molloy's band,
Thinks the Brooklyn Dodgers are grand;
Goes for music especially swing,
A sizzling retort he knows how to fling.



Thomas McKelvey

"Mac" is our basketball score-maker,
Wants to be an undertaker;
Dislikes fellows with hair that's long,
With him on your team you can't go wrong.

Theresa I. Meloy

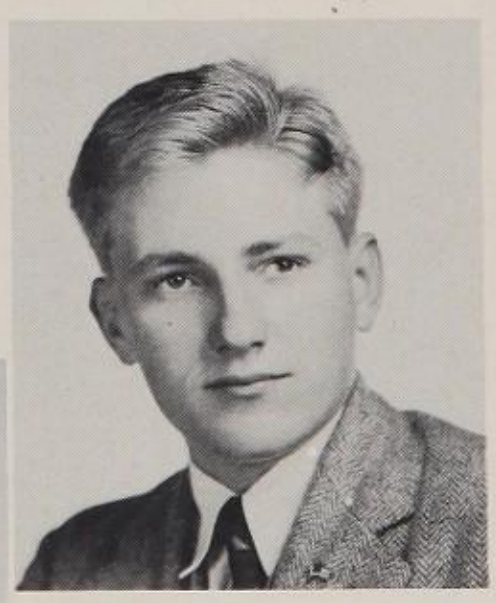
Red haired Timmie excells in sports,
Out on the field she gayly ca-vorts;
Some day she'll be a secra-tree
And probably sit on the boss's knee.

Patricia Meo

Peppy gal with curly locks,
Adores Sinatra, flashy socks;
Riding, swimming too, rank high,
As a Navy nurse, she'll make 'em sigh.

Herman C. Meyer

Raises pigeons, shy of girls,
As yet he has no ambition.
Being happy and playing ball
Are all that's well worth wishin'.



Herman Michels

Friendly Mike is an outdoor boy,
School is his pet peeve;
Hunting and camping are his pride and joy,
For Army or Navy he'll leave.

Olive Mary Miller

Ollie would like to be a designer,
She loves to have a good time;
Record collecting—her hobby,
And she thinks Sinatra's sublime.

Alma M. Miller

Happy Al is always laughing,
She's really one of the best;
She'd love to make music with Waring,
Till she settles down out west.

Paul C. Moneypenny, Jr.

Gay and breezy, takes life easy,
Until the service beckons;
Loves to fish, girls are his dish,
Later to college, he reckons.

Jack Molloy

Jack's pet peeve is getting up,
He'd like to own a plane;
But, as for his talent on the drums,
Our loss is the Swing World's gain.

Agnes Louise Morrison

Guitar-playing "Aggie,"
A great gal for fun;
Bookkeeping will do
When her school days are done.

Dorothy Ann Mooney

Dotty's future . . . designing school
And does she love to sew!
Her dancing is perfectly snazzy
As all of us amateurs know.

Helen Mosher

Pert little Helen—curly brown hair,
Van Johnson the one to make her stare;
Photography is in her stars,
A stubborn person her happiness mars.

Thelma Mueller

To be a secretary or decorate,
Is the aim and ambition of Thel;
She sews and plays the piano,
And does 'em perfectly swell.

Emil Muller

Likes a drug store and ice cream,
Of the Navy he does dream.
Emil's on our baseball team,
At gasoline shortage he could scream.

Paul L. Murachanian

Paul's the young man with the horn,
A future engineer;
When out of school—he'll go V-12
To start off his career.

James Joseph Murphy

Jim is hoping to go to college,
In order to supplement his knowledge,
And yet he's the happiest student alive,
When the schoolroom clock strike 3:25.

William Jerome Murphy

Quiet Bill, football star,
Runs it fast and throws 'em far;
Hitting homeruns its chief delight,
As a journalist, he'll be just right.

Richard Andrew Murray

Spends leisure time working,
Sports lover as "Red";
A native of Teaneck,
Therein born and bred.

Concetta Mary Nastasi

Our laughing Connie,
Who's cute and dark,
As a Spanish steno
She'll make her mark.

Dorothy Nelson

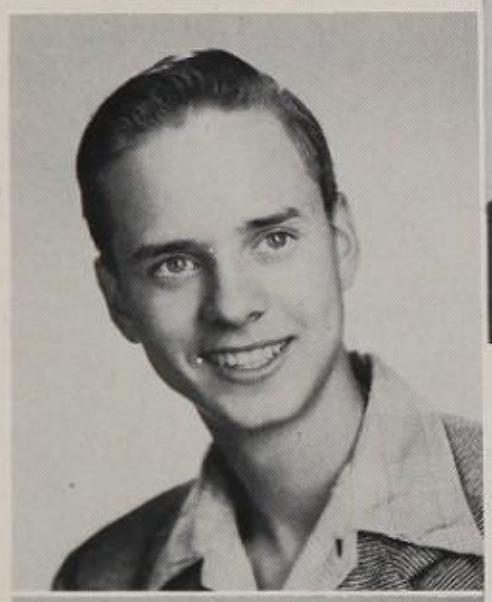
Exhuberant, popular, bright, that's Dot,
First college, then writing will be her lot.
Loves her fellow men; T. Wolfe's books win her,
But being quick enough just ain't in her!

J. Gordon Noble

Dashing "Flash," bright and brash,
Should be a great success;
A pretty girl, and around he'll whirl—
It's dancing, more or less!

Shirley M. Norris

Likes to write—likes to sew,
Peeved at kids—who say 'no';
Lovely, charming—thinks games are fun,
But to her eating, is A-one!



I wish you lots of happiness and success in your business — Love
Ot

Virginia O'Connell

No future plans, no leisure time,
But music by Iturbi suits;
Hates to be teased, movies are fine,
For swimming she also roots.

Juanita W. Nolan

"Nita's" future is the sky
For she desires to learn to fly;
Goes to games and gathers photos,
Likes nice clothes and post-war De Sotos.

Wanda Nuhn

Talented "Wannie" with the orator's voice,
Teaching gym is her life's work choice;
She skates, acts and writes "stuff" too,
Is there anything the gal can't do?

Rita O'Hea

Rita reads and goes to games;
One of Brooklyn's pretty dames.
For Kenneth Roberts she'd go a mile;
A charming girl—with a pretty smile.

Richard Omohundro

Thrifty Richard holds frosteds
dear,
Wants to be a Merchant Marine
And then a radio engineer;
We think that Richard's really keen.

Joseph Thomas O'Neil

"Mouse" likes work, a very strange quirk,
Also loves to bowl;
He sure does shine on our football line—
College is his goal.

Harry J. Osterhout

Future in agriculture for "Hank".
But first in the Navy he'll take his rank;
Quiet lad of enviable height,
Watching football his delight.

Ronald Dennis Page

Super athlete all agree,
Nuts on baseball all can see.
Modest, comic, he's our joy,
Ronald Dennis Page, our boy!

Stephen D. Palmer

Steve is tall with blondish hair,
For sports—and girls—he has a flare.
Future plans include the war,
Then college and traveling as before.

Kathleen Panettieri

Merry Kay—a laugh for all,
In arguments she's on the ball;
Blue-eyed, six feet, her ideals,
"Brooklyn Tree" to her appeals.

Jean Pardey

Jean loves red apples in the fall,
Ping-pong—sewing—and baseball;
A great success she'd like to be,
She'll make a grand nurse we all agree.

Willis Palmer

"Big Will" holds track and racing dear
Intends to be an engineer;
A girl, a car, and gas, no less,
These minor things spell happiness.

Eleanore Panzenhagen

Strawberry blonde, loves to eat,
Quiet, attractive, studious, neat.
Off to college is her aim,
Then in nursing she'll find fame.

Dorothy Pepin

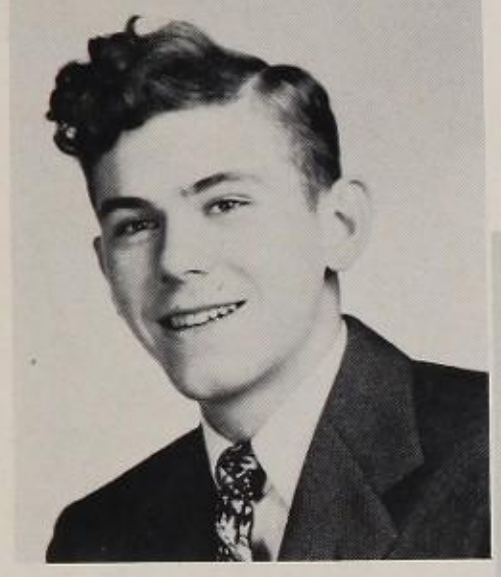
"Peppy's" music is her line,
Piano playing really fine;
Tiny, quiet, eyes of blue,
Collects records, dances, too.

Eugenia F. Pedroli

"Genie" wants to sing and play,
Be another MacDonald some day;
Reads—likes to laugh a lot,
Sense of humor—really tops.

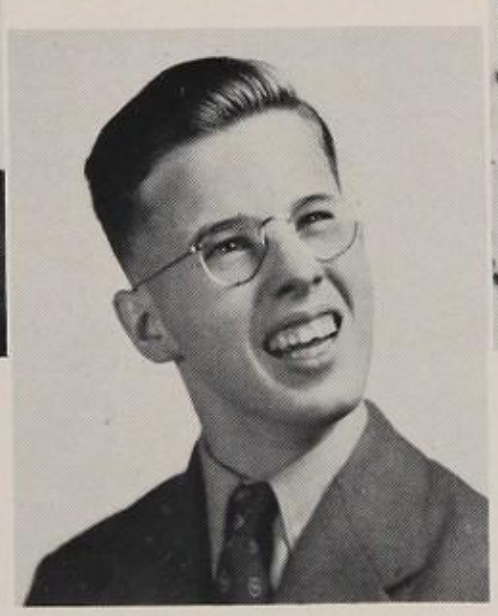
Lillian Peterson

Pete likes movies and the "Voice"
Gooey sundaes are her choice;
Sense of humor makes a hit,
Dislikes those who think they're "it".



Grafton F. Perry

Sport-loving scrub,
With his weakness for song—
Is reserved—has good taste
And with all gets along.

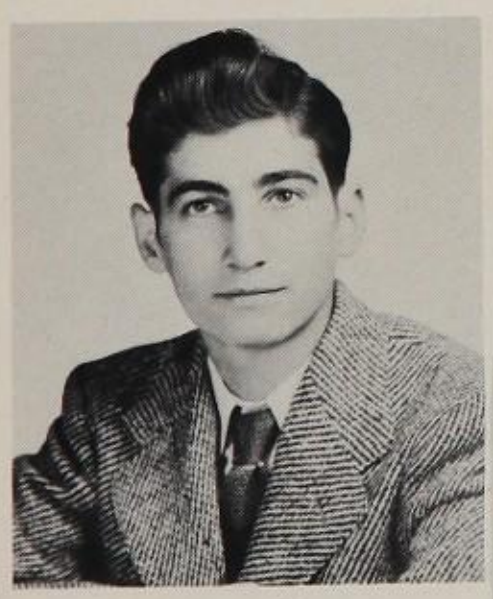


E. Franklin Poole

Friendly Frank will continue school,
With education as his tool;
Collecting stamps for such a spell
Makes him know them very well.

Shirley Plack

Dancing, laughing, twinkling "Shirles,"
Likes them blonde when they're not girls;
You'll never find her all alone,
Spends her spare time on the telephone.



Zarah Poosikian

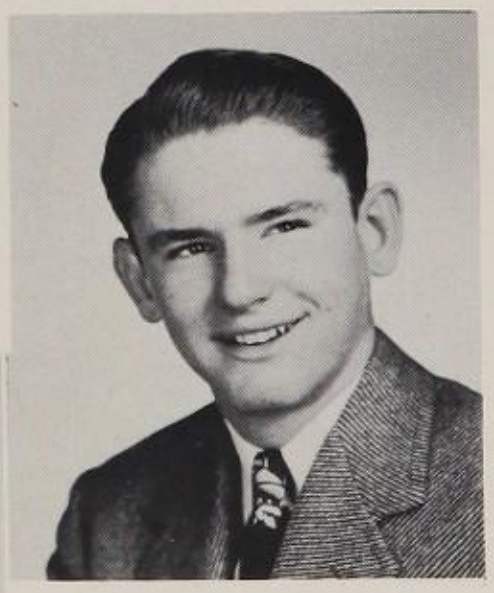
Likes to sleep, can he bluff!
Thinks model planes are the stuff;
Says homework he'd do without,
Wants to travel the world about.

Nicholas Popovich, Jr.

Out of sailing and girls he gets a kick,
A car to fix? Nick does the trick;
At "Frankie boy" he pauses to sneer,
But the rest of the time he's an engineer .

Janet Price

Quiet, friendly, intelligent Jan,
Always willing to do what she can;
Likes to read and hike and ride,
Her love of pet snakes—the unusual side.



Warren H. Pushaw, Jr.

Eating—his joy—he likes to play,
He's a football man on Saturday;
Will be in college in '46,
Football and engineering—will mix.

Fabio Racioppi

Another athlete? Yup, it's so,
At football, wrestling, watch him go.
In the business world he'll rake in the dough.
Our handsome, whistling Fabio!

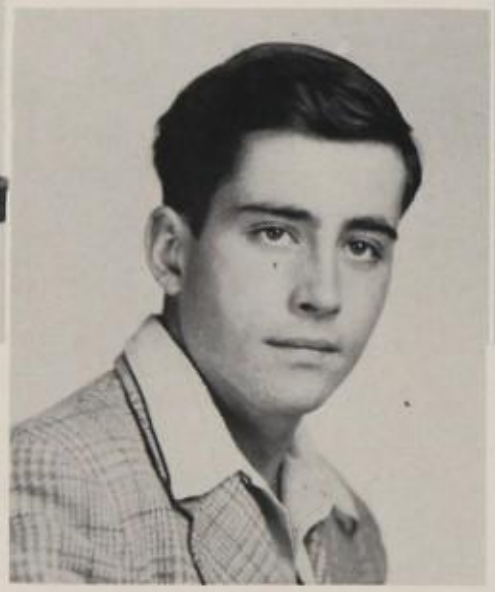
Margery Claire Quitzau

Charming Margie wants to write,
Witty, all-around, extremely bright.
She's college bound, this lovable lass,
Our laughing Margie is one-A class.

Popular music's Helen's pleasure,
Dancing—pretty clothes—hers to treasure;
Basketball and football she adores,
Her friendly eyes rate much applause.

Geraldine Rapfogel

Gerry loves her chocolate candy,
Her sense of humor is a dandy;
Likes Bing Crosby—the piano to play,
She's delightful—light and very gay.



John Albert Reinhardt

"Crusher's" a tall and handsome guy,
Betty Grable makes him sigh;
A budding aerial engineer,
Likes to have fun and flattery to hear.

Kathleen Regas

Kay's all set for a nursing career,
Likes clothes, movies and music to hear.
She can dance any time, hour by hour,
And is justly proud of her great will-power.

William Reinke

Football player, likes to read,
Makes airplane models, lots of speed.
Talkers in movies, Bill's pet peeve;
Will join armed forces when school he'll leave.

Doreen Ritchie

Doreen loves to dance and sew—
Her heart goes to the Navy though.
Conceited kids she does despise;
"Duds" is one who is most wise.

William Carleton Ritterbusch

Breaking bones is his specialty,
Though a future farmer Bill will be.
Soccer, sodas, or redheads are fun,
But his pet peeve is the younger son!

Dolores Rizzo

That she listens very well
Is an asset for our Del.
Lengthy fingernails are her pride,
Her big desire—to be a millionaire's bride.

Patricia Robb

Brilliant Pat, likes basketball and sewing,
Knows just about everything well worth knowing;
She'll be a nurse, and with her brain
Te-Hi's loss is the doctor's gain.

Joan Sandra Rollat

In her leisure time she knits
Sweaters, scarfs, sox, and mits.
Has a weakness, that is candy,
But as a nurse she'll be just dandy.

Betty Rose

She can shoot a basket, a baseball wham,
If you're conceited, better scram;
Goes for music, riding, and clothes,
She'll be known as "accountant Betty Rose".

Doris Jean Rossi

Pretty "Da", we all covet her hair,
Giggly girls one thing she can't bear.
Her future lies in Commercial Art,
From what we've seen, she has a good start.

Patricia Roth

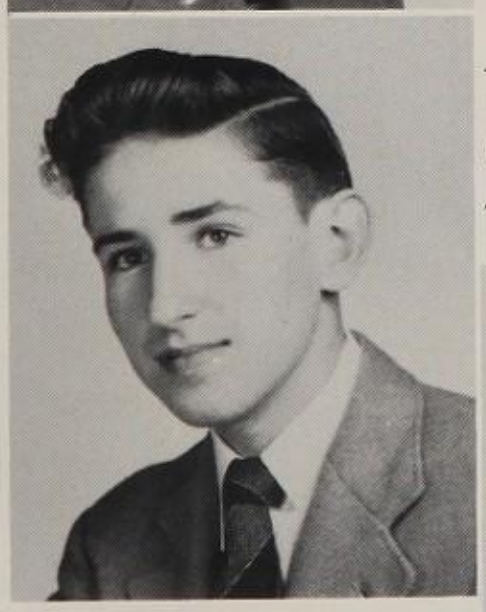
Ah, talent appears, sit up and take note,
Pat plays the piano, and poems has wrote'.
Away from quiet, shy fellows she shies;
She'll be a success in whatever she tries.

George Rothery

"Roth" hangs around "the lane" a lot
Just to see Margie, Joy, or Dot.
Likes to draw or take a dive,
Sail in a sloop or listen to jive.

Joseph E. Rubino

Little Joe of the salvage corps,
Has a power of will that's great;
Agricultural engineering,
Or writing will be his fate.



William Rowe

Willy plays piano well,
Drives the car and dances swell.
Interest lies in horses and boats;
On feminine being's our "Willy" dotes.

Bernard Ruhl

The great outdoors "whar men are men"
Is Bernie's idea of fun;
But he'll jump when Uncle Sam says "when,"
And go back to chickens when done.

Rose Rubinetti

Considerate Ruby hates "catty" dames;
Admits her weakness . . . forgetting names!
Loves that man Sinatra she claims,
Secretarial work is among her aims.

Doris Elizabeth Russell

Doris, born in New York City,
Stamp collector—very pretty.
Interest in the football game,
Telephone operator her aim.

Joseph L. Sanders

Likes peanuts and sleeping,
In sports it is track;
Joe's headed for college,
Always argues back.

Virginia M. Scherzinger

Clever Jinny, very bright
A Navy nurse will be.
Often argues, is usually right,
A success she'll be, we agree.

Betty Schneider

Her pretty clothes and curly hair,
Makes the kids sit up and stare;
A sailor, "Stretch", her ideal she claims,
Secretarial work—one of her aims.

Theresa Schneider

Doesn't like school, doesn't like work,
But duty as a nurse she'll never shirk.
Interests are football, and baseball too,
Always has compliments ready for you.

Dorothy Schweickert

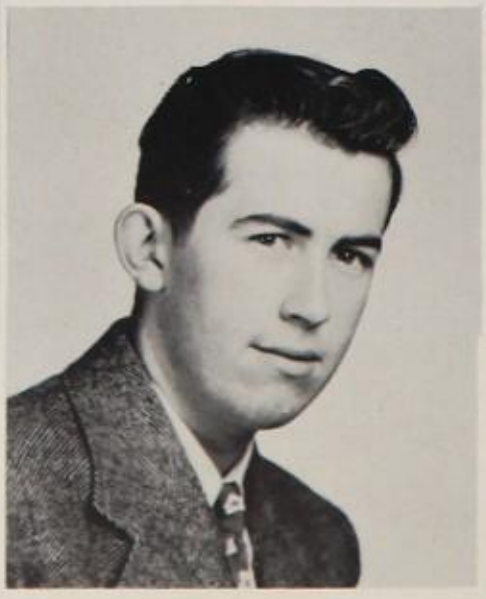
Dot—who was born in Cliffside Park,
In Stenography will make her mark;
Listens to the radio, sleeps and eats,
Swimming and dancing, special treats.

Gertrude Scholz

Red-headed Trudy
Is mad about clothes;
Dislikes insincerity,
But for music she goes!

Charles Sharkey

Except for those who don't wear sox,
Girls can always make him sigh;
Off to service after June,
Charlie is a cheerful guy.



Charles W. Schreiber

Billy . . . very versatile guy,
Likes model airplanes and rockets to fly.
Enjoys a good movie and a nice girl,
Shines up his auto to look like a pearl.

Natalie E. Seib

"C.B." plans a future of fashions,
Football and travels are her passions;
Her interest lies in many things,
She draws, reads, skates, and sings.

Mechanical engineering—the job for Jim,
Sports are pleasurable to him.
Dark and handsome, born in Mass.;
For a movie star he could easily pass.

Edwin C. Shriver

Even tempered "Bub" likes anything but school;
Leisure time for study, says he, is the rule.
Reading choice is tales of war,
Engineering his vocational door.

Edward Shepherd

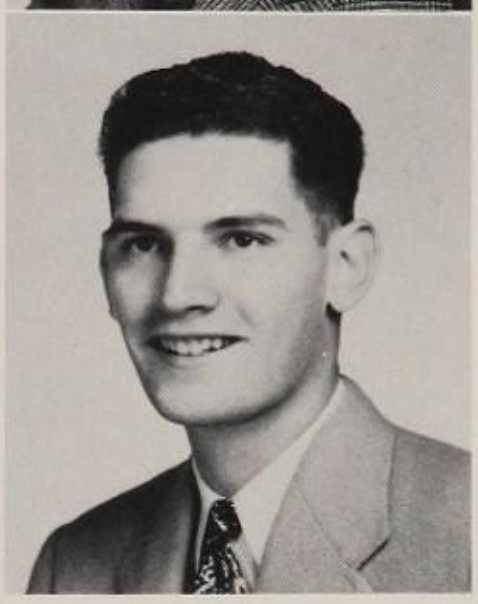
On beautiful blonds and record collections
Ed bestows his bounteous affections;
School and the crooners receive a mere sneer,
But he'll show the world as an engineer.

Hope Jane Skala

Blond-haired Jane
Collects records and clothes;
She'll make a great nurse
Taking care of her beaus!

Herman Simon

"Herm's" a budding college man
Who takes a pleasure in sports events;
Look out if you're a Dodger fan,
Cause words he doesn't "mence!"



Theodore O. Sippel

Brilliance in science, humor in life,
Ted one day will use a surgical knife.
Dissection his hobby, patience his trait,
Blonde girls his weakness, smokers his hate.

Dolores G. Smith

Friendly "Smitty" likes Marines,
Likes sailors too, but blond and lean;
Wants to have fun as she grows old,
Collects war clippings, so we're told.

Bertha M. Smithers

"Bert", well-liked, has a friendly grin,
Loves to talk with Mr. Finn,
Spare time spent as a bakery clerk,
Cadet nursing future work.

Edythe M. Sneath

Keen sense of humor,
Eyes bright and blue;
Getting fun out of life,
Gives her plenty to do.

Lois Spiess

"Spiess" of the figure trés divine,
Gathers with friends to have a good time;
Likes s l e e p i n g, dancing and tennis best,
Soon off to college—for a rest?

Ralph Steinhoff

"Stein" has quite a future planned,
Navy, college, and a car, he'll demand.
Goes for ice cream camping, and jive,
And never gets mad—man alive!

William C. Staudt

Quiet "Willie" likes to walk,
Dislikes girls who always talk;
Navy Air Corps is his aim,
Then in drafting he'll find fame.

Blond, prompt Gracie likes her friends,
To music and travel she completely unbends;
Enjoys taking pictures, football, tennis,
Thinks catty people are the world's worst menace.

Jean E. Strang

"Fluffy" has a flare for art and design,
Thinks music and men are simply divine;
She goes at tennis with plenty of vim,
A swell girl, college is her fondest whim.

Jean Strenkert

Here we have a Sinatra fan,
Who also likes to lick a pan;
In her leisure she skates and sews,
But in the future wants to buy clothes.

Allen Strecker

Streck likes chicken raising,
His weakness is dames;
After the air corps comes farming,
His future "Streck" claims.

Joseph Paul Svitanek

Soccer, fishing, and basketball,
To those sports "Sive" gives his all,
Until in life he takes his station
In the wide field of aviation.

Irene Sweeney

Friendly Re, lots of fun,
Week-ends longer her desire;
Collects records—never done,
Plans to be a buyer.

John William Szelesta

Famous radical of P. A. D.,
Says he does homework constantly.
Happiness and peace his aim,
But World War II has first claim.

Fred W. Taenzer

Fritz likes to work on cars,
At model building he really stars;
To be a draftsman is his aim,
Enjoys a red hot football game.

K. Ruth Talbert

Baking and lovely eyes add to her fame,
With Ruthie life is a wonderful game.
Likes everyone—they return the same,
Grand sport, reads Pegler, college her aim.

Dorothy Talbot

Chocolate sodas . . . successful life,
Are all that Dottie asks;
Dimpled smile . . . loves to dance,
College among her tasks.

Olive Ann Tamborelle

Likes to read and to talk,
Her future . . . librarian's job.
"Tamby's" pleasures, a trip to New York,
And her sister, a feminine gob.

Mark Teaney

Marcus finds fun in lifting weights,
He's a little guy but he's really great;
He likes building model airplanes,
Soccer and football his favorite games.

Eileen Tevlin

Truly a lovely Irish colleen,
Disposition to match, has friendly Eileen.
Hates to be rushed, likes having fun,
Resident buyer . . . she wants to be one.

Thomasine Thiel

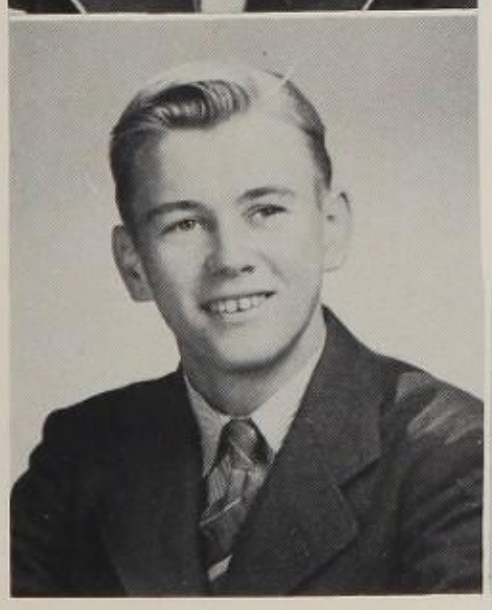
Tommy writes letters,
Likes eating, football.
Blond, beautiful hair
Is the envy of all.

Naomi Thompson

Majorette "Na"
Loves to march with the band;
Says ice cream is O. K.,
Office work she'll demand.

Edwinia H. Tillinghast

One couldn't tell in four measly lines,
The talents which good natured "Tillie" combines;
Editor, artist, musician, and bright,
Beautiful horses are her favorite sight.



Kenneth Thompson

He'd like to be a C.P.A.,
Sports of all kinds he likes to play;
At tennis "Knobby" really scores,
Rah-rahs are people he simply abhors!

Mildred E. Tiedeberg

Grinning Van Johnson, in every part,
Has carved a niche in "Millie's" heart;
Mad about riding, "rahs" are fetid,
Eats like a horse, for college is headed.

Henry K. Timm

Whipped cream on cake he can't resist;
In the Navy he wants to enlist.
Henry loves to sleep and eat,
Thinks ice hockey and golf just can't be beat.

Richard J. Tomlinson

"Red's" always there with a laugh and a crack,
Four eighth period slips he has a knack;
He reads and plays football just for pleasure,
A Cadillac car to him is a treasure.

Ann Marie Treanor

Talented Ann does fine work with wood,
Is noted for portraits exceedingly good;
A career in design is her plan,
Ideal? To meet just one tall man.

Mary Ella Triplet

Friendly "Trip" is small appealing,
On stubborness she hits the ceiling.
Tractor driving she enjoys,
College next four years employs.

Charles Uber

Charlie will be
A Navy man;
Hunts, fishes,—likes football,
Will farm—if he can.

Elaine C. Van Cott

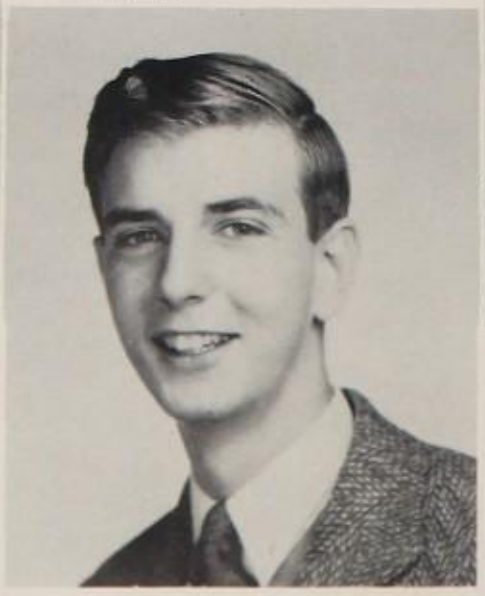
Clever "Peanut" wants a business career,
The Navy and Merchant Marine bring her great cheer.
She collects miniature dogs in her spare time,
Sleeping late Saturday mornings, suits her fine.

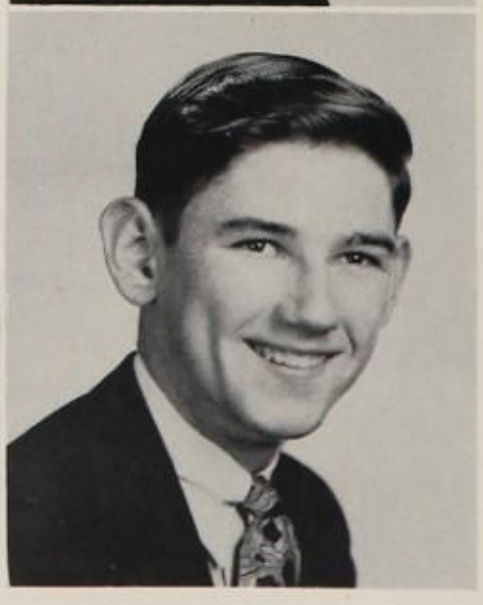
Jane Van Houten

Adorable "Van" likes to ride and dance,
Hopes in business to advance.
Teachers who have pets, Jane deplores,
Eating and having fun, she adores.

Paul Volcker

Incredible knowledge of politics,
Little "Buddy" measures way above six.
Something about him—none can resist;
He'll be Town Manager friends all insist.





Muriel L. Vanderclute

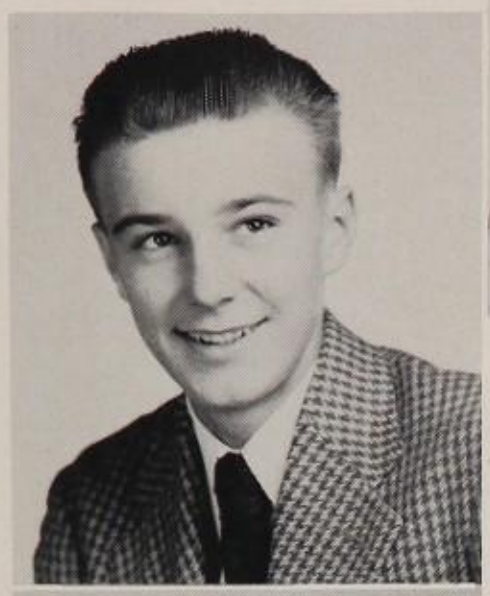
Knit 2, purl 2—"Murs" delight.
Secretary—suits her right.
Loves a date with Navy Blue,
But, "Mur" dislikes to be called "Moo".

Michael Verost

"Mike" jerks sodas in his spare time,
In the Air Corps, he will shine.
His resemblance to Gable is strictly his ear,
He's happy when feminine beauty is near.

Richard A. Voorhis

Good music a joy for Dick,
All sports he thinks are slick;
College after Teaneck High,
One on whom you can rely.



Maurie A. Volk

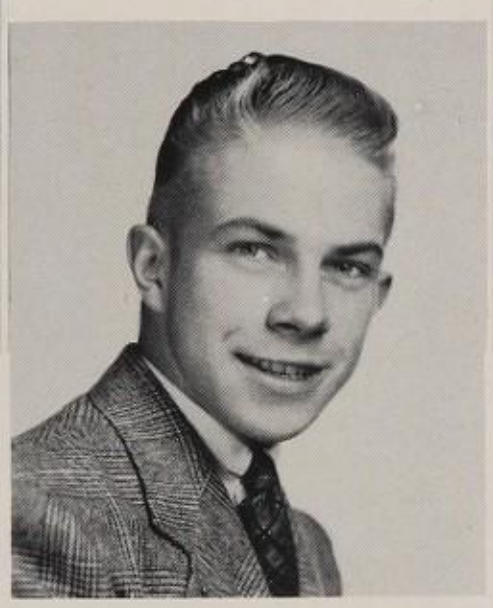
Maurie's an excellent artist
Lovely eyes, hair, and smile;
Likes dancing, sewing, and swimming.
But finds painting most worth her while.

Dorothey Madeline Walker

Dottie likes to golf and swim,
She also likes to dance;
And South America she will tour,
If she gets the chance.

Kathryn Waesche

More studies in store for "Pat".
In Endicott College at that.
Sewing, knitting, reading, her taste,
Beautiful eyes in a pretty face placed.



Roy Wallin

On sketching and drawing witty Roy dotes,
But his love most true is his half a sailboat;
Mayer owns the other half, they sail in good weather,
But how do they manage to put it together?

Stuart R. Walker

Stue likes sports, all kinds, he states,
Stue likes girls, the one he dates.
But the girl he'd date if he were able
Is that cute one named Betty Grable.

Elizabeth Walton

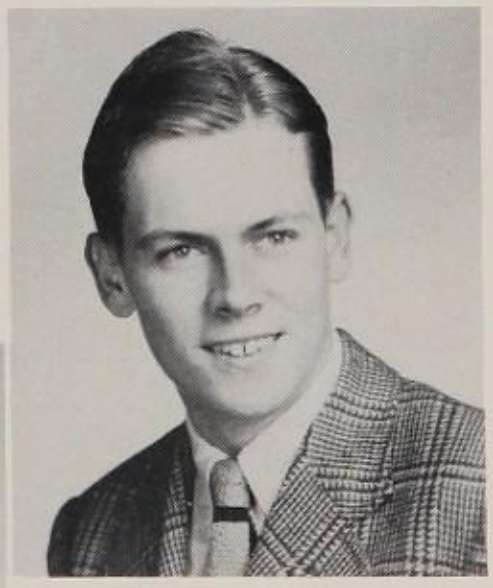
Independent Betty
Claims her weakness, procrastination.
She's helpful—likes good humor—
Chemistry her future station.

Pearl Wells

Pansy writes letters,
Plays ping pong with pleasure;
Small, witty, and cute,
She'll be her boss' treasure.

Viola Wells

Dance 'till dawn, travel about,
Suits peppy "Vi" without a doubt;
With lots of icing she'll take her cake,
In college she hopes a name to make.



Robert E. Wellwood

Bob hopes to be an engineer,
His weakness is for pies;
A non-excitable person
He praises to the skies.

Richard Werner

"Whitey" another engineer,
Quite the guy with girls, we hear.
Basketball, football—his favorite sports,
Eating and sleeping his joy, he reports.

John R. White

Math and gals are his weakness,
Navy and college, hiss aims;
Enjoys horseback riding and swimming,
Or watching basketball games.

Joy White

Likes to cook, likes to draw,
Has eyes that do inspire awe.
Joy wants to interior decorate,
Was born in Chicago, Illinois state.

Ann Whitely

Hot fudge sundaes, sleeping late,
Going to college at future date,
Watching football, swimming, dancing,
Are the things that set Ann prancing.

Virginia Whitman

Someday Jinny will be a farmer,
Sewing and horseback riding charm her.
Thinks having lots of friends is great,
Nice cars to this gal are sure to rate.

Raymond Widman

Cautious "Ray" claims he is shy,
Though he is really one swell guy.
Navy immediately after grad.,
Engineering—the career to be had.

Martin Williamson

High in spirits as well as height,
Lanky Marty finds sports just right;
Eating and sleeping are life's joys two,
T'will be the service when school is through.

Barbara V. Wright

Bobbie's a bright one
With eyes for the Navy;
We all love her hair
Which is naturally wavy.

George Wiedeman

George likes to ride his bike and skate,
In baseball he likes to participate;
"Movie whisperers" are his pet peeve,
An advertising career he'd like to achieve.

Daniel Witt

Air Corps or college for Danny,
Shoots that basketball, boy can he!
"God is My Co-Pilot" favorite book,
Dancing and "wimmin" rate second look.

Best Wishes to a superfluous player. Success and Happiness always Joyce

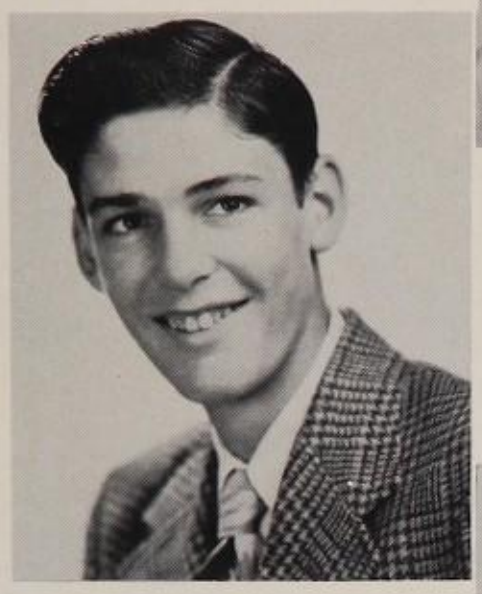
Joyce Yaney

Pre-med in college for "Jerce",
Refuses to swoon o'er the "Verce";
Loves classical music, riding her bike,
Talented, sports-loving, easy to like.

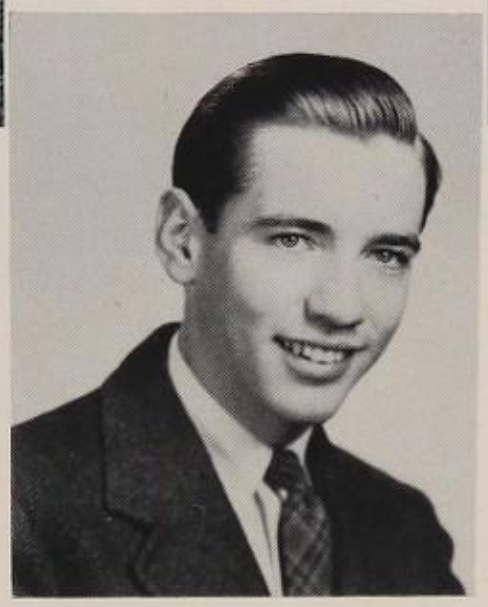


Kenneth Zimmerman

Business or the Navy for easy-going Ken,
Who finds pleasure in things electric;
Thinks Sinatra a man among men,
Goes for women and sports . . . kinda hectic!

Audrey Zinser

Spends leisure time at Cedar Lane,
Tardy people her existence's bane;
Vivacious "Zin" wants to go to Cornell,
Has big brown eyes—personality, swell.



Kenneth A. Zuber

Punctual Ken has a deep seated yen
For chocolate ice cream, so he says;
He builds model planes, likes all kinds of sports,
And works as hard as he plays.

THE STAFF OF THE 1945 HI-WAY

In the Good Ol

You make an efficient soda - - - jerk
Typical of summer work.

We wait on table - - spill the food,
Puts us in a gleeful mood.

A Life Guard isn't all for show,
The poor guy's drowning, you'd better go.

Summertime

A super saleswomen we surmise,
But embarassing purchases do arise.

An apple a day, dear farmerette,
Will keep him happy, you can bet.

Typing's an art not hard to learn
But you'd better quit eating - - - your boss looks stern.

Build Health — The Lucious Way!

You know, if you were to check your present eating habits against the Government's Official Food Rules, chances are you'd discover that you need even MORE of the ENERGY-BUILDING FOODS.

Now, here's one delightful way of doing just that.

Enjoy Reid's rich, smooth Ice Cream. For this luscious treat gives you ALL of the vitamins, minerals and energy-building elements of cream and wholesome milk products.

There's Vitamin A, to build resistance against infection . . . and Vitamin B Complex for healthy appetites, for steady nerves . . . and minerals such as iron and calicum. And Reid's Ice Cream gives you energy-building protein as well!

So enjoy Reid's Ice Cream . . . for your health's sake and for the sheer enjoyment of a luscious, delightful treat.
